

Drill Squad Gives Show

Drilling for members and friends of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges of Torrance, the organization drill team will give a presentation Aug. 24.

A recess of the meeting will be called at 9 p.m. to allow admittance of non-members. At this meeting, Cecile Horton, district deputy president, will make an official visit. Helen Beach will be chairman of the meeting.

The Past Nobel Grand Club of Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347 will meet Monday, Aug. 22, in Bellflower.

Maud Milburn will be in charge of the meeting which all members are requested to attend.

Popular Writer Addresses Group

"Writing for the Film Industry" will be the topic of Leonard Freeman, writer, director and producer for Warner Brothers Studios, as he presents a speech to the Southwest Manuscripts group Friday at 8 p.m. at Clark Stadium in Hermosa Beach.

Freeman was under contract with National Studios in 1950 as a writer, producer and director. He is past president of the Television Branch of Writer's Guild of America.

In 1954 Freeman was nominated for the "Emmy" award for his play, "The Answer." The play received a total of five nominations at that time.

As a writer, producer or director, Mr. Freeman has over 100 television plays to his credit. Presently, he is working on a feature film for Warner Brother Studios, "Gold of The Seven Saints." The Southwest Manuscripts group invite all writers, professional and beginner, to attend the meeting and hear Freeman speak. Lani Bolotin, secretary, said.

Torrance people participating in the organization are Freda Barker, Carleton Ebeck, Edward W. Ebeck, Jerry Carey, Mrs. Mary Lou

Women's Group Sponsors Outing for Youngsters

Setting an evening aside for their children, members of the Waleria Business Women's Club held a barbecue dinner at Redondo City Park followed by a cruise of the harbor for the youngsters last night.

Committee members for this get together were Mrs. George Stark, chairman; Mrs. Lillian Bailey, Mrs. Robert E. Waegner and Mrs. Jack C. Brown.

Also, at this time, Mrs. Wilmet Labit, president, held a brief business meeting discussing plans for the country store and pie booth to be held at the Waleria Round-Up Days, Sept. 11 at the Waleria Park.

"This annual event, sponsored by the Waleria Business Men's Club, promises to be a very colorful event with a Queen contest, Sheriff's Posse and a program and pageant at the Polynesian Restaurant, Friday Sept. 9."

Cushman, J. V. Lopez, Mary C. Rizzo, Betty Rink, Mitchell Van De Pol, and John Wakefield, and Fred W. Field, who serves as treasurer.

Los Cancioneros Open Rehearsals

Los Cancioneros, South Bay area mixed chorus, will meet for the first rehearsal of its 1960-61 season Tuesday, Sept. 13, at 8 p.m. in the El Retiro Park Clubhouse in Hollywood Riviera. This meeting will mark the beginning of the group's 12th year as a musical organization.

Mrs. Thomas H. Mabin of Rolling Hills, director of the chorus, will conduct auditions for new members Aug. 29 and 30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Beckman, 820 Calle de Arboles, Hollywood Riviera.

The choral activities of the group this season, as outlined by Mrs. Mabin, will include a full concert of Christmas music to be followed in February by a performance of Honegger's "King David," with orchestra, at the El Camino Campus Theatre. This concert will be a continuation of the Los Cancioneros Music Scholarship program inaugurated by the chorus last year.

Later in the season, the group will present an informal concert of light music in addition to its customary engagements throughout the community.

Singers interested in an audition may contact Mrs. Mabin at FR 7-2601 or Mrs. Walter Holloway, FR 5-1633, for appointment.
