

Women

Carolyn Perkie . . . Women's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Wade, Allen United at Afternoon Services

Adorned in a floor-length embroidered lace gown, Miss Carol Allen was wed to Max Wade during a mid-afternoon ceremony at the First Baptist Church, Aug. 6.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Allen, 1570 W. 210th St. and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wade, 1556 W. 210th St., Torrance.

Miss Allen wore a finger-illusion veil which was secured by a pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar, where the Rev. Charles Little officiated during the ceremony.

Miss Kay Muench, gowned in yellow organza, carrying yellow roses, attended the ceremony as maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Misses Carol Blake, Bonnie Sinclair, Sharon Brown, Marilyn Miller and Lal Wilson. They were attired in bouffant gowns of yellow organza. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow carnations and roses.

Standing as best man was Robert Bates, with S. Mahan, Jim Allen, Jim Stewart, Larry Thatcher and Ron Walker seating the 300 guests.

Miss Joanne Trygstad was the flower girl, with Polly Basile at the guest book. Miss Shari Church, soloist, sang "I Believe" and the "Lord's Prayer."

Following a church reception, the couple flew by jet to Detroit, Mich., for a honeymoon.

Presently, they are a 1960 graduate of Narbonne High, and the bridegroom is a 1958 graduate.

MRS. MAX WADE . . . the former Carol Allen

—Photo by Bloomer

Sorority Alumnae Meet for Luncheon

South Bay Alumnae of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority held a special luncheon and business meeting Wednesday, Aug. 18, at the home of the president, Mrs. Joseph Adler, 4122 W. 176th St., Torrance.

Plans for the coming year were discussed and a program decided upon to include a suit case fashion show, talks on interior decorating, flower arrangements, hats and accessories, a travelogue, and a wine tasting party, as well as a talk on the group's local philanthropy, the re-furnishing and furnishing of the NYA's newest project to combat juvenile delinquency, the new clubhouse in Wilmington.

Meetings will be held the third Thursday of each month. The first one to be held at the home of Mrs. Louis Beard Jr., 1724 Via Estudillo, Palos Verdes, Sept. 15. The program for the evening features a suit case fashion show. "All Alpha Xi Deltas in the South Bay area are invited to join the group and may do so by contacting Mrs. Louis Bradvica," spokesman for the group said. Those attending the luncheon meeting were Mmes Joseph Adler, James Stoval, Joseph Columbe, Louis Beard Jr., Richard Mesnard, Louis Bradvica, Phillip Merridith, Ken Cunningham, John Luedde, and Marlene Black.

Committees Meet to Discuss Plans for Coming Term

Thursday, Mrs. R. C. Heitmeier, president of 223rd Street School PTA, held a meeting at her home, 908 Sorck Drive, for the membership and ways and means committees.

Plans for the coming year were discussed. Mrs. Frank Perkins, membership chairman, announced that the committee is ready to make a big kick-off for PTA members early in the fall.

Serving on her committee are Mmes. Leo Petrisino, John Bankard, Donna Deibert and Josie Jarvis.

Mrs. Carl Larson, ways and means chairman, revealed plans for meeting the budget during the coming year.

Serving on her committee are Mmes. Jimmy Morris, Mary Burgner and Robert Dossey. Mrs. Heitmeier announced that a special meeting would be called in the near future for all members of the new board.

Juniors Complete Alumni Day Plans

Mrs. Ben Tharp, ways and means chairman of the Junior Woman's Club of Wilmington, has announced that plans for the Annual Banning Alumni Day and Dance have been completed.

Presently, the Juniors are bringing the Alumni mailing file up to date before sending a bulletin of events to all listed.

The group announced that persons not receiving notice of previous Alumni Days or those who have changed address must inform the Juniors in order to be notified of the event.

Mrs. James Hartley, Wilmington, TE 5-5852, and Mrs. Ben Tharp, 23806 Fulmar, Torrance, DA 6-8705, are representing the organization.

Mrs. Tharp announced the Alumni Day will be Friday, Nov. 18. There will be a Baby Show, Art Show and Open House at Banning High School at the home field, Friday evening the gala Alumni Dance at a new location, the Lafayette Hotel Grand Ballroom, will be presented. Music will be by "The Naturals."

Local Auxiliary Women Attend Reserve Caucus

Delegates and members from Ladies Auxiliary of Fleet Reserve Unit 217 Harbor View who attended the National Regional Caucus in Pomona at the Elks Club Aug. 13-14 included Mrs. Mary Davis, president; Mrs. Ruth Patterson, Mrs. Carolyn Kanouse, Mrs. Tava Miekley, Mrs. Catherine Loro.

The main purpose of the caucus was to elect a National Regional vice president of the Southwest.

Members attending were treated to a buffet dinner and entertainment. The opening and welcome address was given by Mayor William Cox, Pomona, with Capt. W. W. Hollister, guest speaker.

The association, national in scope, is comprised of Navy Career Men and Retired Navy Men, their wives, and adult daughters. It was organized in 1927, since becoming international.

Pair Honeymoons North Following Nuptial Vows

Miss Sharon Lynn Stewart exchanged nuptial vows with Gordon B. Henderson Jr., at a 7:30 p.m. wedding Aug. 19 at St. Andrews Episcopal Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben D. Stewart, 1917 Middlebrook Rd., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dupont, Riverside.

Presiding at the candle-light service was the Rev. Hugh R. Percy. The church was decorated with baskets of white gladiolus, carnations and stocks on the isles and on the altar.

Miss Stewart wore a silk organza, floor-length gown with long sleeves. It was trimmed with rosepoint lace with sequin and pearl embroidered motifs on the skirt and at the neckline. There was a bow in back of the gown.

The bride, wearing a pearl and crystal queen crown with a French illusion, fingertip-length veil with rolled edges, was given in marriage by her father.

She carried a white orchid with stephanotis and a prayer book.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Robert D. Yoakum, who was gowned in an aqua chiffon over taffeta street-length dress. The sleeveless gown had a cummerbund with a bow on the left side, a pleated skirt, and was set off with wrist-length gloves.

Mrs. Yoakum carried a yellow circular bouquet of tiny rosebuds.

Attending the groom were Clayton Wycoff, best man, and Gil Fejes and Paul Fejes, ushers, at the double ring ceremony.

Mother of the bride appeared in a champagne lace dress with a chiffon cummerbund and a flowing sash on the side.

Following the reception held at the church parish hall, the couple departed for a one-week honeymoon in Northern California.

Presenting music for the wedding were Mrs. Neil Hammer, soloist, and Robert Edberg, organist, who presented the "Lord's Prayer" and

"O Perfect Love." Miss Joan Neely attended the guest book.

The new Mrs. Henderson is a former student of El Camino College and four-year employee of the Torrance Recreation Department. She graduated from Torrance High School in 1956.

The bridegroom was a graduate of Stockton High School in 1956. He also attended El Camino and is presently employed with the recreation department. In September, he will be a senior at Long Beach State College.

Upon return from their honeymoon, the Hendersons will reside at 2750 Arlington Ave., Apt. B, Torrance.

MRS. GORDON B. HENDERSON

. . . nee Sharon Lynn Stewart

—Photo by Seeman

Sorority Slates Winter Projects

The Eta Mu Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha held its business meeting at the home of Mrs. Pearl Giuliano. Money making projects for the next few months, including "floating" dessert luncheon to be held monthly, and the sale of Christmas cards were discussed.

Plans were made to attend the Beef Barbecue Sunday, sponsored by the Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation, which is Eta Mu's charity.

This is one of the annual money raising projects for the school. After the barbecue, the members and guests will have a pool party at the home of the R. L. Johnston. The Educational program was presented by Pearl Giuliano, who gave demonstrations with modeling clay.

Special guests for the evening were Carolyn Painter, Lee Hanks and Jackie Tracey.

Mothers Serve 175 Youngsters

Representatives from 223rd Street School played host for the south district in the last track meet of the summer, Aug. 18.

Mrs. Carl Larson and Mrs. Wallace McLay served approximately 300 snow cones to 175 children of 12 schools participating in the track meet.

The 223rd Street School playground was under the direction of Kermit Welch, director, and Joan Bridges, playleader. It concluded summer activities Aug. 19.

Park Clubwomen Gain Award for Enthusiasm

Members of the McMasters' Park Mothers' Club, recently received recognition from the city Council, claim the award was due to the many projects undertaken by the group.

In support of Santa Claus, the women purchased a pattern for a sleigh, reindeer, and St. Nick, which one of the members cut and assembled for the clubhouse roof.

The organization presented the first football awards banquet and the initial mother-daughter tea. Also, the group donated trophies for the horseshoe tournament.

In efforts to make money for the various projects, the women hold spaghetti feeds, sell popcorn and snow-cones, bakeless cake sales, white elephant sales, and the summer carnival.

Sponsoring square dance and exercise classes, plus a volleyball team, are among the activities of the club.

In efforts to make money for the various projects, the women hold spaghetti feeds, sell popcorn and snow-cones, bakeless cake sales, white elephant sales, and the summer carnival.

Officers of the McMasters supporters are Mrs. Don Englert, president; Mrs. Paul Miller, vice president; Mrs. Roy Perks, secretary; Mrs. Keith Vandervort, treasurer; Mrs. Don George, publicity; and Mrs. Leonard Webster, hospitality.

PTA Board Plans Annual Luncheon for Instructors

Plans for the annual Teacher's Luncheon of the Howard Wood PTA will be on the agenda when the executive board of the organization holds its August meeting.

The group plays host to the teachers and staff each year prior to the opening of school. Mrs. Bernard Lasere, hospitality chairman, and her committee, Mrs. Hire Muranaka, Mrs. Otis Crawford and Mrs. Paul Braswell, plans a "Back to School" theme for the occasion.

Also, the proposed budget will be reviewed by Mrs. Ronald Wigg, treasurer.

Reports will be given at this time by Mrs. Roy Gebhardt, membership chairman, and Mrs. Herman Goettsch, magazine chairman.

Couple Says Promises at Catholic Ceremony

During a late morning wedding, Miss Ann Leo and Ed Baranowski exchanged vows at a double ring ceremony at the Nativity Catholic Church, Aug. 20.

Father Glynn presided at the 10 a.m. ceremony in the church decorated with white gladiolus.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Leo, 2352 W. 229th St., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. August Baranowski of Irvington, New Jersey.

Miss Leo was escorted by her father wearing an Angelo original gown with tiers of lace and tulle and a fingertip veil. She carried a white orchid corsage with roses encircling. Peaks of stephanotis adorned the bouquet.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Lucy Rizzo, matron of honor, with Carole Wittanen and Evelyn Chambers, bridesmaids.

Tony Rizzo stood up for the groom, with Joseph Minnetus and Joe Fitzgerald, ushers.

Miss Jenny Porter, flower girl, carried pink carnations.

The bride's mother was attired in a turquoise and grey gown with lace. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige lace dress.

A reception was held for the couple from 2 to 6 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Redondo Beach. The new Mr. and Mrs. Baranowski departed for a three-week Canadian honeymoon from the reception.

Currently, the bride, who attended El Camino College, is employed as a secretary at Northrop.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Stevens Institute of Technology at Hoboken, New Jersey. He is employed at Servomechanisms as an engineer.

A wedding breakfast was held for the pair at the Plush Horse in Torrance. Upon return from the honeymoon, the couple will reside in Hollywood Riviera.

Torrance Women Attend Progressive Card Party

Attending a progressive card party, eight women of the Torrance Woman's Club gathered at the home of Mrs. Hugh W. Bowman Jr. Thursday, Aug. 18.

Those attending were Mmes. Roy J. Apsey, R. C. Focha, E. J. Lenk, W. L. Tilley, A. E. England, E. S. Laughney and P. M. Shaw.

Winners of the card party were Mrs. Lenk, first, and Mrs. Laughney, second.

RECOGNITION—Women of McMasters' Park Mothers' Club admire award recently given them for enthusiasm in park and civic activities. The women are (left to right) Mrs. William Tucker, membership chairman; Mrs. Keith Vandervort, treasurer; Mrs. Donald Englert, president; and Mrs. Paul Miller, vice president.

MRS. ED BARANOWSKI

. . . honeymooning

—Photo by Seeman