

Island Air Sets Scene for Social

Island atmosphere is on the menu as the South Bay Chapter of Mothers of Twins Club holds its luau Sept. 10, with 60 members and husbands attending.

The setting, decorated with roses, tiki gods, and a fountain, will be the garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Carroll, 513 Via La Selva, Hollywood Riviera.

Pink lights, mats, low tables, decorative paper fish, flowers, orchids for mothers, and leis for all will add to the island setting.

Entertaining the group with her hula dances, Miss Robin Thomas, Polynesian dancer from Thomas Studios, will invite husbands to try a few sways.

Tempting the tummy will be a menu of Aku, which is whole fish; Mahi-Mahi, fish in sauce; almond rice, fish, poi, coconut chips, banana loaf, Kona coffee, a fruit tray, Hawaiian meat balls, Green Goddess salad, glazed chicken, Polynesian ribs and Passion Punch.

The party has been planned by Mrs. Ernest Baumgardner, social chairman, 25226 Loytan St., with Mrs. Patrick Stewart of Rolling Hills and Mrs. Lloyd Vander Voort, 2604 W. 175th St., hostesses.

Women

Carolyn Perko . . . Women's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Pair Returns Home After Island Stay

The new Mr. and Mrs. Orwyn Sampson returned from a 10-day vacation in Hawaii this week after leaving the South Bay Aug. 20 following a 4 p.m. wedding ceremony.

The bride, Diane Louise Schildmeyer, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Schildmeyer, 1938 W. 262nd St., Lomita, and the bridegroom, Orwyn Sampson, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sampson, of Canoga Park. Presiding at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Louis Evans Jr. at the Bel Aire Presbyterian Church.

The church was decorated with white satin bows and garlands on the aisle. Sprays of white stock, white gladiolas and blue eucalyptus were put in planter boxes on the aisle. Sunbursts of the same flowers were placed on the altar with tapered candles.

Attired in a bridal silk fashioned gown with empire lines, the bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. The scoop neckline of her gown was of chantilly lace trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. The princess skirt fell into a chapel train.

Miss Schildmeyer wore a pearl crown with a finger-tip illusion veil with stephanotis.

Attending the bride was Mrs. John Deer, sister, who was matron of honor, and Charlene Farrar, Joyce Sampson, Mrs. Walter Van Saun Jr., and Becky Walker, bride's maids.

Her attendants wore embroidered blue silk organza sheath dresses with plain blue organza overskirts. They carried cascades of light blue hybrid delphiniums.

The best man, Donald Sampson, stood up with the bridegroom as Bob Sampson, Bob Hawkins, Bill Vincent, Tom Greene, and Charles Schildmeyer ushered the guests.

Miss Schildmeyer is a graduate of Narbonne High and a 1960 graduate of UCLA. While at Narbonne, she was Girls League prexy and an Ephorian. At UCLA, the physical education major was on the Mortar Board, president of Delta Delta Delta, Belle of UCLA and 1958 Homecoming Princess.

Sampson, who is currently a teaching assistant at UCLA, graduated from the university with a Master of Arts in physical education degree. He was president of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. During 1957, '58, and '59, he was PCC tumbling champion.

MRS. ORWYN SAMPSON . . . the former Diane Louise Schildmeyer

HULA HANDS—Giving brush-up lessons to Mrs. W. R. Campbell and her twins, (l. to r.) Neal and Kathy, Robin Thomas (right), Polynesian dancer, instructs the trio. Mrs.

Campbell, president of the Mothers of Twins Club, is preparing for the club luau Sept. 10. Miss Thomas will entertain guests at the event.

Couple Honeymoons at Tahoe After Wedding

Given in marriage by her father, Don Paul Brandel, Miss Bonnie Lee Brandel was wed to William James Fray at a 1 p.m. ceremony Aug. 27.

Miss Brandel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brandel, 219 E. 227 St., and Fray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde F. Ragsdale, 1205 E. Pine Ave., El Segundo.

The vows were said at the Nativity Catholic Church, Torrance, which was decorated with two main altar bouquets of white stock and two bouquets, also of white stock, on each side of the altar. These bouquets also contained ferns and gladiolas.

The bride wore an Alfred Angelo original, styled by Elythe Vincent in the new Italian Silhouette and selected by "Modern Bride" magazine for its cover illustration.

The cameo neckline of the dress was highlighted with tiny seed pearls, while the short sleeves were formed by scallops of chantilly lace ending over an empire band of tulle caught with a rose.

Tulle flowed gently from the bodice of the gown to the bouffant skirt and was joined by appliqued chantilly lace which was accented with hand made sheer roses.

The chapel train of chantilly lace was touched off with a rose for added back interest. The corsage was made of two white orchids in a cascade of lily-of-the-valleys and stephanotis with white streamers.

Attending the bride was Miss Patricia Ann Brandel, maid of honor, and Miss Lana Kay Brandel, Miss Cheryl Lee Mock, and Mrs. David R. Smith, bridesmaids.

The maid of honor wore a pink taffeta, street length gown and carried a bouquet of pink carnations with a white ribbon.

Bridesmaids were attired in creamy mint taffeta gowns with full-pannelled skirts. The gowns were gathered at the bodice and worn with butterfly caps. The bridesmaids carried mint carnations with white ribbons.

Standing up with the bridegroom was Lowell M. Berry, best man, with Richard L. Berry, Gary Cassity, and Anthony Petz, ushers.

Presiding over the double ring ceremony was Father Thomas J. Glynn.

Appearing as flower girl, Miss Beverly Lou Brandel wore a white nylon dress of Irish lace. The knee length gown had puff sleeves and was set off of a head band also of Irish lace.

The flower girl carried mint and pink carnations in a white basket.

Mother of the bridegroom was attired in a pink chiffon sheath with matching accessories. The bride's mother wore a baby blue brocaded lightweight satin dress with white accessories.

Following the reception, which was held immediately after the ceremony at the Nativity parish hall, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe.

Fray, who is a graduate of Washington High and El Camino College, is employed as a planning engineer in Fullerton. Currently, he is enrolled at UCLA.

The bride, graduate of Banning High, will attend El Camino this semester. The couple will reside at 2804 El Segundo Blvd., El Segundo.

Club for Overweight Credited in Torrance

Created to aid overweight women in the Torrance area, TOPS, meaning "take off pounds sensibly," will be formed Sept. 6 at 8 p.m. at St. Andrews Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave.

The club is especially designed for women who want and need to reduce but, for lack of will power, cannot, diet, Mrs. J. A. Wooton, spokesman for the club, said.

The Torrance organization will be a chapter of the nationally known group, whose principal objective is to help overweight members to lose excessive weight and keep it off.

The theory of the organization is based on group therapy with the club meeting once each week and members weighing in upon arrival.

Persons sincerely interested in reducing are invited to attend this first meeting, the spokesman said. For information regarding the organization, Mrs. Millie Martin, FA 8-3083, and Mrs. Carvella Bovee, FA 0-0536, can be notified.

Junior Woman's Club Slates Welcome Tea

"Getting Acquainted," members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club slated a tea at the home of the second vice president and membership chairman, Mrs. Charles Briner, 1008 Kornblum Ave., Aug. 27.

Attending the first event of the new term, 24 new provisionals, who were summoned by informal invitations, were given detailed written information about the club's aims and various functions.

Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, club president, and hostess Mrs. Briner were on hand to welcome guests and serve tea and coffee. A silver service was set on a table with a centerpiece consisting of a green and yellow floral arrangement.

New provisionals include Mmes. William Benkendorfer, James Eruno, Harold Brunner, Dan Derieg, Fred Edwards, Edward Felkel, Ronald Forestal, Don French, William Gross, Michael Hammond and Benjamin Hatfield.

Others new to the organization are Mmes. George Hudak, Jerry Johnson, Harry D. Lakin, Roger Lockhart, Roy Maxfield, Duane Pierce, Wally Pollack, Joseph Russell, Jerry Salladin, Melvin Shawhan, Robert St. Armand, Wendell J. Thompson.

Ladies' Church Guild Holds Smorgasbord

Serving a Smorgasbord dinner Saturday, Sept. 10, members of the Ladies' Guild of the Central Evangelical Church are presenting the dinner at the Guild Hall, corner of Marcelina and Arlington streets.

The meal will be served from 5 to 8 p.m. Tickets are available at $1.50 per adult, 75 cents for those under 12 and over 5, and 50 cents for those under five.

Information about tickets can be obtained by calling Mrs. Frank Lane, 1531 El Prado, or Mrs. Norman Blackhall, 1634 Beech Ave.

and Robert Vroman.

A dessert buffet in honor of the provisionals was held Wednesday, with the Junior Executive Board serving as hostesses, at the home of Mrs. Cloeworthy.

Special guests attending the buffet were Mrs. R. E. Shaw and Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom, Woman's Club coordinators, and Mrs. Roy J. Apsey, Torrance Woman's Club prexy.

"Circle the world with Friendship" is the theme of the Marina District this year, with the dessert buffet centering a mythical "World Tour" theme, with an imaginative tour via boat.

Neighbors Selling Rummage Goods

Sponsoring a rummage sale, the Torrance Royal Neighbors will open shop at the Rosecrans House of Rummage in Compton tomorrow.

The rummage is to be delivered to the building, 103 E. Rosecrans, tonight.

Persons wishing to contribute articles for the sale can contact the oracles, Mrs. Angeline Eisario, FA 8-6597 or Mrs. Mary Baker, DA 6-0779, and articles will be picked up.

Mothers' Club of Scout Troop Plans Projects

Discussing plans for the September Court of Honor, the Mothers' Club of Scout Troop 315, sponsored by Moose Lodge Chapter 785, met at the home of Mrs. Ted Whisnand, 2212 Arlington Ave., recently.

The organization viewed various methods of earning money for the support of the troop. Plans discussed included a paper and rag drive and a white elephant sale, to be held early this fall.

Those present were Mmes. V. B. Simpson, J. D. Turner, F. E. Corey, L. Roach, H. C. Shattuck, E. H. Foster, D. C. Reyes, H. T. Whisnand and Mrs. N. Rickard, president.

MRS. WILLIAM JAMES FRAY . . . nee Bonnie Lee Brandel

Photo by Seeman

Sorority Plans Fashion Showing

Presenting a fall fashion-line show Sept. 29, the Omicron Pi annual style show will be slated at the Hacienda Hotel with fashions from Mon Botique in Torrance.

Plans for the show were made at a meeting held by the ways and means committee Aug. 22 at the home of Grace Rettig.

Those attending the meeting were Carol Woodward, Ester D'Arnellas, Kay Ross, Virginia Nichols and Mrs. Rettig. Proceeds from the fashion show will go to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

GETTING TO KNOW—Members and new provisionals of Torrance Junior Woman's Club gathered for a "Get Acquainted" tea slated at the home of Mrs. Charles Briner, 1008 Kornblum Ave., Friday. Members, Mrs. Michael Hammond

(left) and Mrs. Briner (seated) orient new provisional members (l. to r.) Mrs. William Benkendorfer and Mrs. Melvin Shawhan on the activities of the club.