Aloha Week Holiday

Indications are that a score of localites will join The Polynesian's third annual "Aloha Week Holiday in Hawaii," according to Pete Reitz. The South Bay restaurateur reports that some reservations are still available for the nine day tour, leaving the restaurant Oct. 16th via United Airlines jet flight to Honolulu.

The Polynesian has arranged the tour to coincide with traditional festivities of "Aloha Week," the gayest holiday of the year in Hawaii. Reitz, general manager of the exotic Torrance dining spot, will personally conduct the excursion. Harry Baty's "Polynesians" will entertain members of the tour en route to Honolulu and during their stay in the islands.

The fun-packed round-trip includes hotel reservations, beach parties and luaus, a round-the-island tour, Pearl Harbor cruise and other surprise features. Reservations should be made at The Polynesian as soon as possible to assure travel space and other accommodations.
