Indians Hit Walleria Park

The beat of the Tom-Tom and chant of Indian tribes filled the air at Walleria Park recently. Big Indians, the little Indians, all sporting headdress and war clubs, prepared for action. This was the scene as Pack 371C of Torrance held its monthly pack meeting. The Indian theme provided the cubs with plenty of projects centered around the study of the American Indian. Cubs in each den prepared a variety of items such as: Tom-Toms, wristlets and dress, which they wore to the big pow-wow. Chief Guy Gates presented well deserved awards to the following braves: "Wolf Badge"—Robert Gann, Donald Happs, Stephen Atkins, James Taylor; "Bear Badge"—David Cate, Nicky Dailey, Bill Bowes; and "Lion Badge"—Orvis Atkinson. Others were Gold Arrow—

William Riddle, David Cate, Robert Gann, Donald Happs, Nicky Dailey, Steven Fowler, Larry Yunt, Gary Tyler and Alan Tuttle; Silver Arrow—William Riddle, David Cate, Larry Vincent 2, Donald Happs 2, Richard McGill, Steven Fowler, Larry Yunt, Gary Tyler, Alan Tuttle 3, Robert Miller, and David Miller. The following Squaws (Den Mothers) received a certificate of appreciation in recognition of the spirit of Cub Scouting brought to the community by their services: Delores Riddle, Dawn McGill, Irene Weeks, Dorothy Miller, Jackie Tuttle and Janie Esposito.
