Fire Stations to Polls Studied

Study of a plan under which each County fireman would be deputized as a Registrar of Voters, and each County Fire station a registration center was ordered this week by the County Board of Supervisors. There are 107 County Fire stations located throughout Los Angeles County.

"I believe that this plan, if determined to be feasible in the County, would be a great convenience to the public at no additional cost to the taxpayers," Supervisor Hahn declared.

Two counties, Ventura and Alameda, both have the system and find it very successful.

"Many times people wishing to register to vote have to make a number of inquiries before they are able to learn where they should go to be registered. With this plan in operation, everyone would know that they could register to vote at any time at any County Fire station," Supervisor Hahn said.

Amateur Tee Crown Goes to Bouchey

Larry Bouchey, Torrance entry in the California State Amateur Golf Championship, bested George Galios of Monterey 7-5 last Sunday at Pebble Beach and waltzed away with the coveted title.

A 240 pound ex-pro, Bouchey thundered at the crowd and voiced displeasure at the officiating. Using a putter that had seen much better days, Bouchey played some of the best golf ever seen at Pebble Beach.
