

Women

Lavina Nugen . . . Women's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

GETTING TO KNOW—all about Arlington PTA activities with the help of Mrs. Richard Gerald (left) president, were members and friends when they attended the Get-Together Tea last week. Among those who attended with Mrs. Gerald were (left to right) Mrs. De Lon Goodwin, Henry Behrens, principal; Mrs. Arthur Camore, multi-grade teacher; and Mrs. Kenneth Henderson, fifth vice president.

Planning Party? Want to Share Recipe or Hint?

The Torrance Press invites readers to send articles or information concerning events in your daily life to the Women's Editor.

Birthday parties, anniversaries, bridal and baby showers, engagement announcements, and other highlights in the lives of our neighbors that take place and make a news worthy women's page story.

A photograph can be taken if advanced notice is given for an appointment time. Also, a photo can be included with the write-up or information to be used.

Articles about your child's parties while he is a youngster will make good reading in years to come.

Local Ladies Win Two Fair Prizes

Two Torrance women are among the prize winners in the culinary department at the 1960 Los Angeles County Fair. The fair continues until Oct. 2.

Mrs. Rosalie Weber, 23002 Kathryn Ave., won two prizes. She received second prize for a Swedish Tea Ring and third prize for French bread.

Miss Nancy Weber, of the same address, won third prize for her white bread.

Use classified. Call DA 5-1515

Beauty College Awards Prizes

Revealing hair styles for fashionable women this fall, were students of hair styling at the Flavio College of Beauty, 1628 Cravens Ave., recently.

The student contest is conducted 3 times a year and prizes or trophies are awarded for the best styling in Senior and Junior Divisions.

The judges at this year's show were: Lela Holiday, style director for the May Co.; James Lazzaro, style director at the Broadway; Anthony Rose of Mr. Anthony's Beauty Salon, Hollypark; Rick Sagalani of San Greco, Inglewood, and Tosha Otsu.

Vince Imbriali was contest chairman.

CUTTING HAM

A ham is cut from the upper part of the hind leg of a pig or hog. The picnic ham is the shank end of the shoulder.

Use classified ads for quick results. Phone DA 5-1515.

PRIZE WINNERS for the senior division at the hair styling show of the Flavio College of Beauty, 1628 Cravens Ave., Torrance, were (left to right, standing) Bette Friscia, Bill

Callaway, Tino Trujillo and Jack Rosas. Modeling the styles were (left to right, seated) Sandra Shore, Sandra White, Myrna Hartman and Lottie York.

JUNIOR DIVISION WINNERS at the hair styling show of the Flavio College of Beauty, 1628 Cravens Ave., were (left to right, standing) Vince Baker, Julia Gambeau, Gloria Peri

and Joe Ayala. Modeling the winning styles were (left to right, seated) Jody Pappan, Alice Gomez, Dolores White and Irene Light.

Fireladies Tell Plans for Dance

The Fireladies annual Fall Dance will be held Saturday, Oct. 15, at the American Legion Hall, 1107 Border Ave.

Dance plans were completed when the Fireladies met last Monday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Ronald Power, 3544 Garnet St.

Proceeds from the affair will benefit the Widows Fund. Tickets are now on sale and may be purchased from any of the Torrance Firemen or their wives. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. George Blahnik or Mrs. John Ferralolo.

Following the appointment of Mrs. Milton Langum as Cards and Flowers chairman, reports were given on the recent Family Picnics and bake sale. Plans for the circulation of a "Hospitality Basket" completed the agenda.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess, Mrs. Ronald Power, and co-hostess, Mrs. John Millard.

The Fireladies welcomed as guests for the evening Mrs. Salvatore Frasca Jr., and Mrs. Charles Brennan.

Members attending were: Mmes. Ronald Power, Robert Moffitt, Milton Langum, Sam Martin, Charles Reintzma, John Ferralolo, Richard Sprout, Billy Slonecker, John Millard and George Blahnik.

Registration Set for Arts, Crafts

Registrations for craft classes designed for both children and adults now are being taken at the Torrance Recreation Department, FA 8-4108. The classes are slated to begin next month at the Arts & Crafts Center, 22730 Lupine Dr. according to Center Director Erika Muhl.

Saturday sessions for youngsters are slated to begin Oct. 8. Crafts classes will meet at 9 a.m. and 1:30 p.m., while a puppetry session is slated for 2:30 p.m. Fee for each four-week class is $1.50.

For adults, there will be a mosaics class convening at 7:30 p.m. on Mondays starting Oct. 10 and 9:30 a.m. Fridays starting Oct. 7.

Women's Auxiliary Aids Fund

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Torrance, is listed among the more than 400 parish organizations who are patrons of the annual Garden Party of the Episcopal City Mission Society of Los Angeles.

All proceeds from the garden carnival will be used to augment the wide-spreading visiting and counseling program of the Society's Chaplaincy Service.

The gardens of Bloy House, the new Diocesan Theological Study, Retreat and conference center, 2249 S. Harvard Blvd., Los Angeles will be the scene of the get-together from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Star Club Adds Ellwood Paul

Ellwood M. Paul, 5121 Zakon Road, Torrance, has qualified as a member of the 1959-60 Star Club of the New York Life Insurance Company, Charles F. Edwards, regional vice president, announced today.

Membership in the Star Club is based on 1959-60 sales records and is composed of the most successful agents of New York Life. As a member of the Star Club, Paul has qualified to attend an educational conference in Yosemite, California, Oct. 2-5.

Use classified. Call DA 5-1515

Church to Hear Supervisor Hahn

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn has accepted the invitation of Reverend Paul Garrison, minister, Judson Baptist Church, 18101 S. Avalon Blvd., to speak at the Sunday evening, Oct. 2, meeting of the congregation.

Brenda Whitten Weds in Chapel Ceremony

Miss Brenda L. Whitten became the bride of Andrew J. Dolan in a double-ring ceremony at the Aloha Wedding Chapel, Long Beach last Saturday.

Miss Whitten is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Whitten of Hawthorne. Dolan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henri William Lay Jr., 4820 Carson St., Torrance.

Wearing a white brocaded satin ballerina length gown styled with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline and long sleeves, the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of teardrop and seed pearls. Mounted on the bride's white satin Bible, was a bouquet of lilies of the valley surrounding a white orchid.

Miss Evelyn Stark, maid of honor, wore a ballerina gown of aqua peau de soie. A matching veil fastened to a satin crown completed her ensemble as she carried a bouquet of carnations.

Leslie Jackson served the groom as best man.

After a patio reception at the home of the bride's parents, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon up the California coast.

The new Mrs. Dolan is employed at Space Technology Laboratories, El Segundo.

Dolan is serving his tour of duty with the U.S. Marine Corp.

TIME SAVERS

Even though the 1960 homemaker has more sudables to suds than ever, her laundry time has been cut drastically—thanks to washwear fabrics and efficient new home laundry equipment.

MRS. ANDREW J. DOLAN

... nee Brenda Whitten

—Photo by Mariels

PTA News

223th Street School PTA held the first meeting of the semester last week with Mrs. Richard Heitmeier, president, presiding.

After the executive board and new teachers were introduced, Mrs. Frank Perkins, membership chairman, reported the membership drive will begin Oct. 3.

A check was presented to Mrs. Marie Lorenz, principal, for musical instruments.

A film titled, "Rescue Breathing," was shown by Robert Dailey from the Office of Civil Defense Mobilization after the business meeting.

The theme for the meeting, Oct. 11, 12:30 p.m. in the school auditorium will be "International Relations."

A foreign student will be the featured speaker and slides of Mexico, Japan, and Tahiti will be shown. A musical program of foreign songs and dances by the students is also planned.

Torrance Elementary PTA served the annual teacher's luncheon, Sept. 13, 12 noon, in the new cafeteria. Mrs. James McClure was in charge of the luncheon.

Indian Summer was the theme with Chief Bully Good and his family decorating the tables. Individual place mats with Indian markings held a tepee with the teacher's name written on it. The art chairman, Mrs. Mary Eason, made the place mats.

Stanley G. Roberts, principal, was presented an Indian headdress by Mrs. Ben Rusk, president, who proclaimed him "Chief Top Totem."

"The members of the executive board wore attractive squaw dresses."

Carl Steele PTA executive board recently welcomed the staff and teachers at a Hawaiian Luau luncheon in the cafeteria.

John Kassar, newly appointed principal, introduced the new teachers and greeted the returning ones.

Mrs. Harold Edner, 3rd vice president and her committee hosted the pot-luck Hawaiian style luncheon.

The theme for the new year will be "Day by Day."

The first regular meeting will be held Oct. 13, 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Members are requested to bring their favorite recipes to the meeting. Mrs. Marie Edner, 4602 Cadison St., will pick up any recipes if you call her at FR 1-3104.

A recipe book is a ways and means project to be sold throughout the year, said Mrs. Kenneth Spooner, ways and means chairman.

Local Resident is Cast Member

Fred W. Gustafson, 349 E. 238th St., Torrance, is a member of the cast of "South Pacific" to be given by the Long Beach Civic Light Opera Association in the Concert Hall.

The musical is scheduled to open Oct. 7 in the Concert Hall of the Municipal Auditorium.

Use classified ads for quick results. Phone DA 5-1515.

Greenthumbers Hold Garden Show Tonight

Tonight is the night for the Annual Flower Show sponsored by the Greenthumbers Garden Club at the home of Mrs. John Klug, 5708 Palos Verdes Blvd., Torrance.

The entries will be on display from 6 to 9 p.m. and they will be judged on the patio of Mrs. Klug's home.

The Greenthumbers recently met at the home of Mrs. James Halley, 4623 147th St., Lawndale for their regular meeting.

Mrs. Joseph Leger, president, presided and those who attended were Mmes. George Horton, John Klug, Paul Kolleck, Louis Wilhelm, James Buchanan, and Joseph Fitzgerald.

Also attending the meeting was Melody Phillippe, a guest.

Use Press classified ads to buy, rent or sell. Phone DA 5-1515.

COUNT DOWN—for blast-off Oct. 3 is the membership drive for Riviera PTA. Launching the space ship are (left to right, standing) Mrs. Leo Bereda, president and Mrs. Richard Dodge, membership chairman. Students aboard for take-off

are (left to right) Robin Laxton, Bruce Barton and Wayne Crosby. Prizes will be awarded for the highest percentage during the week's drive.

LIKE OLD TIMES — at the founders Day Tea when the Volunteers of the Harbor General Hospital Auxiliary gathered at the home of Mrs. Robert March. Greeting volunteers and friends at the lovely appointed lace

covered table were (l to r) Mrs. Charles Gridler, president; Mrs. Stanley Lewis, Co-chairman; Mrs. Robert March and Mrs. R. L. Rudy, hostesses; and Mrs. E. Robert Haman, chairman of the tea