

Women

Lavina Nugen . . . Women's Editor

★ TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wolf Announce Daughter, Judy's Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf, 21804 Halldale, Torrance, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judy, to Samuel Thomsen of Santa Barbara.

By passing tiny little candy dolls of all nations last Monday night, Miss Wolf announced her engagement to her Chi Omega Sorority sisters.

Later the same evening at a farewell dinner in honor of Thomsen, the couple revealed their betrothal. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Thomsen is presently employed as director of the University Religious conference in Santa Barbara. Oct. 8, he reports to Washington, D.C. to be an officer in the Foreign Service.

Miss Wolf is a senior at the university where she is majoring in Sociology. She is a major in Colonel Coed and president of her sorority. As a member of Project India, she spent the summer in that country.

Thomsen received his political science degree at UCLA. He served as president of the Acacia fraternity and has been a member of the Project India group for the past five years. He was adult advisor for the last four trips.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thomsen of Hawthorne are his parents.

MISS JUDY WOLF . . . Betrothed

Mothers' Club Sets White Elephant Sale

The Mothers' Club of Troop 315 met last Thursday evening, at the home of Mrs. V. B. Simpson, 1125 W. Jay St., Torrance.

To help finance the activities of Scout Troop 315, sponsored by the Moose Lodge, the Mothers' Club is conducting a White Elephant sale at the lodge, 1744 Carson St., Oct. 22, 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. H. V. Rose, Mrs. Lester Roach, Mrs. Don Bose, Mrs. F. E. Corey, Mrs. H. C. Shattuck, Mrs. V. B. Simpson, and Mrs. Norm Rickard, club president.

Birthday Dinners

Dining together recently at The Pen and Quill in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Judd of Hollywood Riviera, Miss Alma Willock of Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Melnikoff of Rolling Hills. Incentive for the party was to not miss Willock's birthday anniversary.

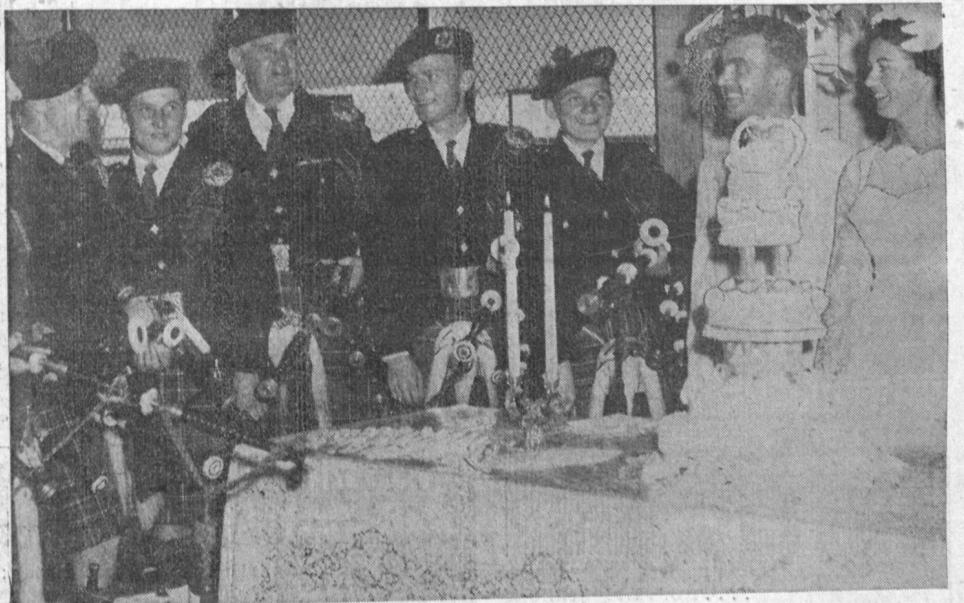

Musical Program Begins New Year for Woman's Club

The Torrance Woman's Club opens the club year on Wednesday, Oct. 5, 12:30 p.m. at the clubhouse with Bob Mitchell's Singing Boys as the program.

The Singing Boys have performed throughout the U.S., Canada and Mexico.

Mrs. J. W. Post, hospitality chairman, and her committee, Mrs. C. T. Rippey, Mrs. L. W. Ballard, and Mrs. H. G. Stephens, will greet members and guests as they arrive.

Mrs. B. W. Roberts, second vice president, will present the following new members to the club: Mmes. R. L. Floyd, J. C. Orr, William Casebolt, A. W. Wittington, D. B. Kirks, Cerlista Reeve, L. J. King, David Lyman, R. Niquette, C. B. Geisel, Irwin Kasten, J. G. Laird, R. W. Sawyer, H. G. Frenz, W. H. Speck, C. B. Wiley, A. K. Peterson, Margaret Barth, E. A. King, and Mrs. W. C. Crooker and Mrs. R. W. McNiel former members re-joining.

A WEE BIT OF SCOTLAND—Was enjoyed at the marriage of Miss Betty Ann MacTaggart and James MacColl when the bagpipers clad in their colorful berets and plaid kilts, turned out for the ceremony last Saturday at St. Mark's Methodist Church, 83rd St. and Gramercy Place. James MacColl is a Torrance resident and the pipe major for the Scottish Highland Society, prize-winning bagpipers. —Photo by Cagels

Garden Valley Association Officers Election Held

The Garden Valley Association for Mentally Retarded Children elected a Torrance man president when the group met last week.

During a session at the Seventh-day Adventist Church, 16113 Denker Ave., Gardena, Stanley Be Bon, 3419 W. 226th St. was elected to head the slate of officers for the association.

Other officers include: Mrs. Max Stern, vice president; Mrs. Harry Stiers, secretary; Gwynne White, Fred Bennett and Wilbur E. Bingham, trustees to serve two years; and Fate Mainer, Mrs. Jean Bower and Harrison Miller, trustees to serve one year.

Operating as a training center for retarded children who have been rejected by other programs, the association signed a three-year lease for property donated by Dr. Sidney Rooth. This will be the site of the permanent center.

A member of the Gardena Junior Chamber of Commerce, attorney Richard Hasenplug is legal advisor for the group, donating his services.

Future Busy Times Ahead for Y Wives

The Y Wives of Torrance invite all interested women to the Tuesday morning activities.

Each Tuesday at 9:30 will be a hour of exercise and dance under the direction of Mrs. Kim Allred. Followed by a different and interesting program.

Oct. 4th a demonstration of Vivian Woodard cosmetics will be given. These products were used in the International Beauty Contest in Long Beach. Mrs. June Winters will demonstrate on a member of the audience.

Oct. 11, will be a general business meeting.

Oct. 14, the annual fashion show "Discovery in Fashion." Time is 8 p.m. Place will be YWCA, 2320 Carson St. Price is $1.25 per person. Tickets may be obtained from the ticket chairman Mrs. Chris Warren DA 3-2775.

On Oct. 18, Mrs. Shirley Wayland will demonstrate the latest in toys.

Oct. 25 the program consists of 2 women from the non-partisan League of Women voters. They will explain the voting issues for a half hour. There will be a half hour question and answer period.

The Y Wives meeting place is being changed to the YMCA building at 2080 Washington, Torrance. Excellent child care is provided.

Unique Capers

Spectators attending the football game between Southern California and Texas Christian University recently were entertained with a unique idea in half-time ceremonies.

Attempting to demonstrate to Texas, California's ability to be really western, a procession of covered wagons, buckboards, stagecoaches and equestrian units circled the coliseum arena.

Indians did a war dance in the center and charged from a group of over one hundred square dancers from the Mavericks of Torrance and the Wagon Wheels of Lomita.

Betty MacTaggart Wed to J. MacColl Saturday

The scent of heather was in the air and wail of bagpipes heard when Miss Betty Ann MacTaggart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David MacTaggart, 1319 W. 109th Pl., became the bride of James MacColl, 1329 W. Carson St., Torrance.

MacColl is pipe major for the Scottish Highland Society, and eight of the organization's prize-winning bagpipers, clad in their colorful berets and plaid kilts, turned out for the ceremony.

For half a mile around St. Mark's Methodist Church, 83rd St. and Gramercy Pl., the pipers could be heard.

For her three o'clock wedding last Saturday afternoon, Miss MacTaggart chose a floor-length gown of white chantilly lace fashioned with a sabbina eckline embroidered with sequins.

The gown had a fitted bodice with long pointed sleeves. The lace skirt fell in graceful points over a bouffant net underskirt revealing lace appliques underneath.

Her finger tip veil was held by a lace cap embroidered with sequins and pearls.

When she was escorted down the aisle and given in marriage by her father, the bride carried a bouquet of white roses circling a white orchid.

Mrs. Jean Stockton who served as matron of honor and the bridesmaids wore identical gowns of coral pink nylon fashioned with fitted bodices and short bouffant skirts. Wearing matching shoes and shoulder length veils held by crowns, the attendants carried bouquets of yellow roses.

The bridesmaids were Misses Lila Romig and Evelyn Herring.

William Currie served the groom as best man. Ushers who seated the 300 guests were William Swinbourne and Jack Barber.

The Rev. Frederick M. Rogers performed the nuptials and John MacGregor was the soloist for the service.

Out of town guests who signed the guest book for Dorothy MacCowan at the reception, were Mrs. Elizabeth MacKay, Laguna Beach; Mrs. Catherine Sullivan, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Peter McPhillips, Yucaipa; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cline, Covina.

After the reception, the newlyweds left for a northern California honeymoon.

Daughter Added to D. Ramsey House of 'Dons'

When Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ramsey, 4130 W. 173rd St., Torrance, decided to name their house, it was not difficult for them to find one.

"House of Dons" was the name that they have chosen.

The Ramsey family started out with the father, Donald, and the first-born son was called Donald Eugene.

Now, Debra Dawn Ramsey has been added to the family. Debra Dawn was born Sept. 3 at Hawthorne Community Hospital tipping the scales at 6 pounds, 10 1/2 ounces.

Little Miss Ramsey makes the succession of "Dons" complete; they are referred to as Big Don, Little Don, and Baby Dawn.

The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Trampe and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ramsey, of Inglewood.

The great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Anderson; and great-grandmothers, Mrs. C. W. Struggs and Mrs. A. Ramsey.

Mrs. Donald Ramsey, her mother, Mrs. H. S. Ramsey; and little Debra Dawn are all native daughters of California.

Friends Gather

Gathered recently at The Pen and Quill in Manhattan Beach for cocktails and dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Reed of Torrance, Mrs. Harry L. Phillips of El Segundo, Mrs. Sidney Haft of Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. James Meehan of Redondo Beach.

Las Vecinas Hear Psychologist Tell 'How to Be Happy'

Dr. Lyndon Babcock from the Harbor Mental Health Clinic spoke at the afternoon meeting of the Las Vecinas Club at the Plush Horse.

Following his talk on "How to Be Happy Though Married," Dr. Babcock held a question and answer period.

Dr. Babcock, a Detroit psychologist, moved with his family last year to the Harbor area.

Sponsored by the Las Vecinas, the Mental Health Clinic, 731 S. Beacon St., is in San Pedro.

Mrs. Lee Washington introduced 32 provisional members at the tea and social hour.

E. Yetmans Greet Gley Family Home From Germany

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Yetman, 25511 Narbonne Ave., Lomita, welcomed home this week their daughter and family.

Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Richard Gley with their two children, Catherine and Richard, have just returned from Germany where Staff Sgt. Gley has been on duty for the past two years.

After visiting here for two weeks, the Gleys will travel to Cheyenne, Wyoming where he will now be stationed.

Future Busy Times Ahead for Y Wives

The Y Wives of Torrance invite all interested women to the Tuesday morning activities.

Each Tuesday at 9:30 will be a hour of exercise and dance under the direction of Mrs. Kim Allred. Followed by a different and interesting program.

Oct. 4th a demonstration of Vivian Woodard cosmetics will be given. These products were used in the International Beauty Contest in Long Beach. Mrs. June Winters will demonstrate on a member of the audience.

Oct. 11, will be a general business meeting.

Oct. 14, the annual fashion show "Discovery in Fashion." Time is 8 p.m. Place will be YWCA, 2320 Carson St. Price is $1.25 per person. Tickets may be obtained from the ticket chairman Mrs. Chris Warren DA 3-2775.

On Oct. 18, Mrs. Shirley Wayland will demonstrate the latest in toys.

Oct. 25 the program consists of 2 women from the non-partisan League of Women voters. They will explain the voting issues for a half hour. There will be a half hour question and answer period.

The Y Wives meeting place is being changed to the YMCA building at 2080 Washington, Torrance. Excellent child care is provided.

Unique Capers

Spectators attending the football game between Southern California and Texas Christian University recently were entertained with a unique idea in half-time ceremonies.

Attempting to demonstrate to Texas, California's ability to be really western, a procession of covered wagons, buckboards, stagecoaches and equestrian units circled the coliseum arena.

Indians did a war dance in the center and charged from a group of over one hundred square dancers from the Mavericks of Torrance and the Wagon Wheels of Lomita.

Betty MacTaggart Wed to J. MacColl Saturday

The scent of heather was in the air and wail of bagpipes heard when Miss Betty Ann MacTaggart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David MacTaggart, 1319 W. 109th Pl., became the bride of James MacColl, 1329 W. Carson St., Torrance.

MacColl is pipe major for the Scottish Highland Society, and eight of the organization's prize-winning bagpipers, clad in their colorful berets and plaid kilts, turned out for the ceremony.

For half a mile around St. Mark's Methodist Church, 83rd St. and Gramercy Pl., the pipers could be heard.

For her three o'clock wedding last Saturday afternoon, Miss MacTaggart chose a floor-length gown of white chantilly lace fashioned with a sabbina eckline embroidered with sequins.

The gown had a fitted bodice with long pointed sleeves. The lace skirt fell in graceful points over a bouffant net underskirt revealing lace appliques underneath.

Her finger tip veil was held by a lace cap embroidered with sequins and pearls.

When she was escorted down the aisle and given in marriage by her father, the bride carried a bouquet of white roses circling a white orchid.

Mrs. Jean Stockton who served as matron of honor and the bridesmaids wore identical gowns of coral pink nylon fashioned with fitted bodices and short bouffant skirts. Wearing matching shoes and shoulder length veils held by crowns, the attendants carried bouquets of yellow roses.

The bridesmaids were Misses Lila Romig and Evelyn Herring.

William Currie served the groom as best man. Ushers who seated the 300 guests were William Swinbourne and Jack Barber.

The Rev. Frederick M. Rogers performed the nuptials and John MacGregor was the soloist for the service.

Out of town guests who signed the guest book for Dorothy MacCowan at the reception, were Mrs. Elizabeth MacKay, Laguna Beach; Mrs. Catherine Sullivan, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Peter McPhillips, Yucaipa; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cline, Covina.

After the reception, the newlyweds left for a northern California honeymoon.

Daughter Added to D. Ramsey House of 'Dons'

When Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ramsey, 4130 W. 173rd St., Torrance, decided to name their house, it was not difficult for them to find one.

"House of Dons" was the name that they have chosen.

The Ramsey family started out with the father, Donald, and the first-born son was called Donald Eugene.

Now, Debra Dawn Ramsey has been added to the family. Debra Dawn was born Sept. 3 at Hawthorne Community Hospital tipping the scales at 6 pounds, 10 1/2 ounces.

Little Miss Ramsey makes the succession of "Dons" complete; they are referred to as Big Don, Little Don, and Baby Dawn.

The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Trampe and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ramsey, of Inglewood.

The great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Anderson; and great-grandmothers, Mrs. C. W. Struggs and Mrs. A. Ramsey.

Mrs. Donald Ramsey, her mother, Mrs. H. S. Ramsey; and little Debra Dawn are all native daughters of California.

Friends Gather

Gathered recently at The Pen and Quill in Manhattan Beach for cocktails and dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Reed of Torrance, Mrs. Harry L. Phillips of El Segundo, Mrs. Sidney Haft of Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. James Meehan of Redondo Beach.

ACCENT ON PINK — For the Get Acquainted Tea at the Evelyn Carr Elementary School last week was complete even to the color of the dresses worn by the executive board. In charge of the arrangements for the 7th annual tea were (left to right) Mrs. Norman Wilson, tea chairman; Mrs. William McKim, co-chairman; Mrs. George Miller, PTA secretary; and Mrs. Perry Baker, president of the PTA.

SMART FOR FALL—Are these Polly Bergen creations shown by Miss Polly Bergen at the Broadway Del Amo last Tuesday. For the occasion Miss Bergen wore a black and white checked jersey dress trimmed in black. The model wears a gray and white wool tweed suit-dress. The blouse-like top of the dress is solid gray. A red hat and matinee-length pearls compliments the costume. Both of these creations are moderately priced at the Broadway Del Amo. —Photo by Bob Wintermeyer