

John McKinnon Named National Guard Head Here

Captain Douglas J. "Dutch" Horlander, California National Guard Commander of Company E, 132nd Engineer Battalion, announced today that First Lieutenant John J. McKinnon, would assume command of the Torrance National Guard Unit.

Lieutenant McKinnon is a veteran of World War II and a Torrance resident employed by the city of Torrance as assistant building superintendent. He will assume the roll as commander of the local unit as well as president of the Torrance Army board.

The Torrance National Guard Unit has been under the command of Captain Horlander for the past six years. Captain Horlander, also a World War II veteran, has resigned the local command in order to enroll in the Army's four year advanced engineers officers course at Fort McArthur.

The local unit considered by many to be one of the most outstanding National Guard Units in the country, over the past years has been active in local affairs and maintained one of the highest training standards in the Southern California area.

El Camino Hosts
Annual Meeting of Physics Men

El Camino College will host the annual fall meeting of the Southern California Section of the American Association of Physics Teachers Saturday, Oct. 15. Mrs. Margaret Lehman, El Camino physics instructor and president of the Southern California section, announced today.

Dr. Richard Feynman, professor of physics at California Institute of Technology, will deliver the major address to attending high school and college physics teachers. Dr. Feynman's speech is entitled "There's Room at the Bottom."

In addition to the principal address, there will be several ten-minute papers delivered by section members on topics of concern to physics teachers at all levels of instruction.

The meeting will be held in Room 8 of the Physics Building at El Camino College and will commence at 9 a.m. Other members of the host physics faculty are Thomas Wilson, Hollywood Riviera; Mrs. Geraldine Karpel, Pacific Palisades; Julius Summer Miller, West Los Angeles; Donald Joslin, Torrance; Jessie Platts, Gardena; Mark Jacobs, Rolling Hills and Ernest Cohen, Westchester.
