What's in a Name?

Richard M. Nixon is a student at the Northrop Institute of Technology in Inglewood.

The full name of the Republican presidential candidate's name-sake is Richard Murray Nixon who resides with his wife in Gardena. And just like the Vice President he served in the Navy. And what's more he is an ardent Republican and plans to vote for his own name in the November election.

Also in attendance at Northrop Tech is a student whose name is the same as one of baseball's immortals, Roger Hornsby. And in the Alumni Association are such famed monikers as the Army's John J. Pershing and the entertainment world's Jimmy Durante, who also attended the Inglewood engineering college.
