

Round Table Stresses Voting Duty

Table decorations at the October Roundtable and dinner honoring immediate past presidents of Marina District 18, California Federation of Women's Club, Junior Membership emphasized the importance of participation in the coming elections. Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club will be hostess for the monthly conference. She will greet guests as they arrive at the Torrance clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave. Among the past and present district officers attending the 7 p.m. dinner and conference will be:

Gem, Mineral Club Slates Yearly Show

Rock Hounds in the Torrance area are planning to attend the "Indian Summer," 11th annual show of the Compton Gem and Mineral Club. The show is to be held in the Lynwood Community Center, 3789 Century Blvd., Lynwood, October 22 and 23.

Show hours are from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday and from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Sunday. Admission is free and free parking is available.

Mmes. James Lees, Rolling Hills, immediate past district officer; Joseph J. Boylan, Torrance, members of the executive board; Robert Baida, Beverly Hills, District 18 president; and Robert Driezler, Redondo Beach, immediate past district president.

The Harbor City Boy Scouts will sponsor a Halloween carnival October 29 from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. at the Charles F. King Youth Hall parking lot.

A parade has been planned to begin at 1 p.m. Cash prizes will be awarded for the most grotesque and prettiest costumes for the boys and girls. The Scouts are building the booths and will operate them. The Scout Mothers' Auxiliary will serve hot dogs, coffee, lemonade, and operate hand-work, white elephant sales, and cake booths.

Keep leaves raked up as they fall. It's not only easier, it makes the garden more pleasant to live in during fall.
