

Community Day Set Nov. 4th

World Wide Community Day will be observed at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave., Friday, Nov. 4.

The business meeting will convene at 10:30 a.m.

A sack luncheon will be held with dessert and coffee furnished by the church. Baby sitting will be available for mothers with small children.

After the luncheon the service will be held in the church with the Rev. H. R. Percy, rector of St. Andrew's, as guest speaker.

Since the first world war, the first Friday of Nov. has been designated as a day set aside as Community Day.

Worship and study with a time prayer for faith and guidance is planned for the day.

The theme this year is "Christian Action for Freedom."

The public is invited to attend the meeting. Each one who attends is asked to bring along a sack lunch to eat with the other guests and members during the luncheon time.

Parents should explain to their children that they have the same responsibilities on their bicycles as motorists have in their cars.

Ground Breaking Ceremony Set for Church of Religious Science

A ground-breaking ceremony will take place on the site of the Redondo-Torrance Church of Religious Science at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 30. The two-acre property is located at Prospect and Knob Hill, Redondo Beach.

Youth of the church will participate in the program with the presentation of the colors. The consecration address will be given by Dr. Earl D. Barnum, minister.

President of the Board of Trustees, Neal Q. Vocke, has asked Albert I. Lukes, vice president, to welcome members and friends, including Mayor LeRoy L. Center, City Manager Francis E. Hopkins, City Engineer Franze Nybe, Superintendents of Streets and Parks Robert Smith, all of Redondo Beach, and Mayor Albert Isen of Torrance. A. C. Owens, president of the South Bay Ministerial Association, will also attend.

Doyace L. Miller, building chairman and member of the board of trustees, will turn the first spadeful of earth.

Construction of the building will be started Nov. 1 by C. W. Driver and Co., general contractors. Risley and Gould, architects, prepared the plans.

The site may be reached by driving from north or south on Prospect Ave.

Attendance Goal Set by Baptists

The Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church of Lomita will observe "High Attendance Day in Training Union" this Sunday at 6:30 p.m. The goal is to break the record attendance.

The film "Pulpit In the Sky" will be shown at the opening assembly time. All the church choirs will sing in a combined choir. This will be the first time all five of the graded choirs have sung at one time.

The Pastor, Robert A. Wells, will speak on the Ninth Commandment in the "Foundations For Happiness Series." The subject will be "Wise or Otherwise."

"The tongue is the least controlled of all man's faculties. It can be used as a great force for good. It can however be used to tear down and even to destroy," Mr. Wells stated.

Political Issues Subject of Series at Harbor Church

The political issues facing the voter before the general election, Nov. 8, will be discussed at two Sunday evening meetings at Harbor City Methodist Church beginning Oct. 30. The series will spark the Sunday evening services slated for the fall, stated the Rev. Clarence E. Spier, Jr., pastor of the church.

Next Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m., a speaker from the Republican party will present the party's views on such important subjects as farm policies, foreign relations, labor issues and world peace.

There will be a question and answer period. A coffee fellowship will be held in the church dining hall from 8:15 to 8:45 p.m.

The Democratic headquarters will present a speaker for the meeting Nov. 6 to discuss the same issues.

Future Sunday evening programs to follow will be announced by the pastor.

Novitiates Class Slated in Area

A new class of novitiates will begin in March for the Third Order of St. Francis which meets the third Sunday of each month at 2:30 p.m. at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church, 1234 Fifth St., Hermosa Beach.

The class is open to practicing Catholics 15 years of age and up. Members of the new class will attend monthly meetings for one year before being professed into the Order designed for lay men and women.

One of the oldest Orders of the church, it was founded by St. Francis 700 years ago to include lay Catholics who may serve in any station of life.

Church Women Plan Carnival, Taco Dinner

The women of St. Philomena Church are planning a Halloween Carnival and Taco Dinner for Sunday, Oct. 30 on the school grounds 21900 Main St. from 7 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The menu for the dinner includes Tacos, beans, rice, salad, and coffee or milk. Tickets will be sold at the door for 85 cents for adults and children under 12 years for 50 cents.

In charge of the dinner will be Mrs. Clarence Turner assisted by Mesdames William Jacobs, Larry Jacobs and Angel Perez.

Hamburgers and hot dogs will be sold by John McGrath and his committee. The bake goods booth featuring home baked items will be handled by Mesdames Merle Arcy, Robert Ortiz, and Mrs. David Clemens. Soft Drinks will be sold by Mrs. Robert Gese and her committee.

Tickets for the game booths will be sold by Mrs. Robert Walsh. In charge of the bean bag toss will be Mrs. Howard DeCastro and Mrs. John Rubio. Handling the balloon dart booth will be Mrs. Jose Ortiz and Mrs. Walter Eilers.

Mesdames Bill Cary and Harold Gondringer will be in the fish pond booth helping the children fish for prizes. Ring toss will be handled by Mrs. Ed Germany and Paul Ferrare. Mrs. Ralph Souza is in charge of the jingle board.

White elephants will be sold in a booth by Mrs. Bill Hopkins and Mrs. Marty Lydon.

A gay time will be had by all when church families and public friends gather for the largest festival occasion of the school year, announced Mrs. Mike Marinovich, school coordinator and general chairman of the carnival.
