

Bethel Choir Sings

The Lomita Bethel Choir of the Job's Daughters will present the music at the Sunday morning 9 a.m. service of the Harbor City Methodist Church, 25904 Cayuga Ave.

The choir will sing "Hee" and "Nearer My God," Shari Church, honored queen, will sing with the group.

Former past honored queen Shirley Washburn will direct the choir.

INFORMALITY OKAY FOR HOLIDAY BUFFET

Half the fun of Thanksgiving day is nibbling on leftover turkey in the evening, or for a bedtime snack.

While you may have used your finest tablecloth and napkins for the sitdown dinner earlier in the day, there's no need to be formal for evening snacking.

It's easier to set out the leftovers buffet style.

Wagon Wheels Sponsor Pancake Breakfast

A pancake breakfast sponsored by the Wagon Wheels Square Dance and Youth Club will be held at Shoppers Market, Pacific Coast Hwy. and Crenshaw, Blvd. Saturday morning from 8 a.m. until 12 noon.

The club headed by Caller Noble Spees, president Curley Rebello and vice president Larry Rebello numbers 300 children as members. The children are from Torrance, Lomita, Harbor City, Wilmington and Gardena.

More funds for the many activities of the club is the goal for the proceeds of the breakfast.

Peggy and Noble Spees, sponsors of the all children group plan many interesting activities for the club. For the month of December, a snow trip to Camp Seeley in the San Bernadino mountains has been planned.

According to Noble Spees, the Wagon Wheels are known throughout the southland for their stylish dancing, their manners, and their help in combating juvenile delinquency. Good grades for the children and young people are a 'must' for membership in this organization.

The menu, for the breakfast, Saturday, will be Aunt Jemina pancakes, pork sausage, maple syrup, fruit juice, Floger's coffee, and milk. The price is 50 cents for all you want to eat.

Door prizes will be given and an exhibition of square

PTA Session Set

The meeting of the State Board of Managers, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, is scheduled for Nov. 16 and 17 in Los Angeles at the Statler Hilton Hotel.

Class Competition Aided Membership Drive Goal of PTA

Membership in the Torrance High School Parent-Teacher Association now numbers 1,568, according to Mrs. Robert Moffitt, membership chairman.

"This is a tremendous increase in PTA membership over last year," Mrs. Moffitt reported to the executive board, "Last year we had about 500 members."

Torrance High School student body numbers approximately 1,250. The membership drive was harked this year by class competition in which classes with 100% membership were given a special treat of ice cream bars.

An educational presentation will be given to the classes with the highest percentage average of memberships in the Torrance High School's PTA.
