

A Message to Note

Read Luke 1:76-80

The dayspring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. (Luke 1:78, 79.)

While marking pupils' compositions one day, I was thrilled to see that a little girl had written: "If all the people in all the countries of the world loved the Lord Jesus, there would be peace." If our hearts are filled with love for our crucified and risen Saviour and with gratitude for redeeming us, there is no room for hatred or hurt feelings. His love and peace will flow through us to others.

At one of our seaside services a man fiercely abused my husband for preaching, but we prayed frequently for him with Christian love. Day after day he stood just within sound of the gospel. He listened sullenly at first, but finally gave his heart to God. Christians may meet with persecution, especially when trying to spread the gospel, but nothing can really disturb the peace of God garisoned in their hearts. PRAYER: Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for giving us peace through Thy dear Son's redeeming love. May his peace be so manifest that it may spread to all we meet. In His holy name we pray. Amen. THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Our Saviour's peace in our hearts will guide others to Him. Mabel E. Palmer (England)
