

New Kitchen Will Delight Entire Family

Puzzled about a Christmas gift for your wife? Here's an idea that will delight her more than—well, at least as much as—a mink coat: a complete, new, all-electric kitchen.

Sound too expensive? Then consider this: Today you can obtain an FHA loan with no down payment to remodel a kitchen completely with such build-in appliances as an automatic electric dishwasher, countertop range, and built-in wall oven.

In addition, a modern new kitchen adds perhaps more resale value to a house than any other major improvement. Further, the efficiency of a new kitchen, plus its morale-building good looks can add greatly to the general economy and welfare of the entire household.

A built-in electric dishwasher alone will add so many extra hours to your wife's day she'll be able to devote more time to the children, to her general housework, and to such things as sewing and entertaining.

Annual Visitor to Saudi Arabia Becomes El Camino Frosh 'Justice'

Saudi Arabia made its contribution to justice at El Camino College recently, when Maben Appleby, known on campus as just plain "Al" was sworn in as freshman justice on the student court.

A graduate of Hawthorne High School, the new court official travels each summer to the Middle East, where she visits her father, an employee of an American oil company. His home is in Dhahran in the province of Al Hasa. "I believe the place can be best described by comparing it to a desert community of about 9000 in Arizona. It is a city built for Americans by the oil company and has many comforts of a small town in the United States: a swimming pool, theatre and park."

Considering all aspects, she considers Saudi Arabia "a nice place to visit," but she has no desire to live there permanently.

"Outside of Dhahran the environment is very depressing," she explained. "The people are extremely poor and uneducated; moreover, women are very underprivileged, having no social status and being subject to the laws of Islam which allows a man to have four wives."

"Of course," she added hastily, "many of the American boys in Dhahran think the four-wife ruling of the national religion is a good idea."
