

Yuletide Spirit at Local School Hits JRC Workers

Christmas spirit has really hit Junior Red Cross members of Hillside Elementary School, 25600 Crenshaw Blvd., in Torrance, as they busily squeeze in every spare moment possible to complete their special holiday projects.

Mrs. Geneva LaVerne, 1825 San Pedro, Torrance, teacher-sponsor for the Hillside JRC, is as enthusiastic as the kids about their plans to help others less fortunate over the holidays.

SCHOOL OBSERVANCE
Top priority went to promotion of a school-wide observance of "Hogan-kit Day" last Friday. Hogan-kits are drawing bags which Junior Red Cross members make and fill with small toys and educational items.

Bags are given to Indian children living on reservations to prepare them for their first days at school.

A "Hogan-kit Dance" was also held Friday night with admission going only to Hillside students who brought

Can you guess her SECRET?

Now—so comfortable, so undetectable—contact lenses are for just about anybody; the self-conscious teen-ager, hating to admit she needs glasses... the society miss who feels that conventional glasses subtract from her youthful charm... the man or woman afflicted with forgetfulness who too often leaves their regular glasses at home. Whatever your reason for being interested, come in and see what Science has done about contact lenses to make them wonderful to wear.

Bringing holiday cheer to needy families in the area is the purpose of Narbonne's Christmas "basket drive" to commence Monday. Home-rooms will divide themselves into committees for the most efficient collection of food, toys and clothes. A committee will also be formed to decorate the "basket" in some original motif appropriate to the season.

On December 15, these Baskets will be moved to the multi-purpose room for display and to be judged by a select group of faculty members on the basis of content (primarily) and superficial adornment.

Highlight of the holiday social season at Narbonne is the Christmas Dance, December 16, sponsored by the Lettermen and Lettermen clubs. Formal attire will be mandatory at this gala affair to be held in the girls' gym from 8:30 to 12 p.m. Intriguing refreshments plus a name band will be further attractions of this event all to be had for $1.50 per couple.

Rumor hath it that the decorations planned for this fantasy ball will be out of this world, thus all those who are contemplating attending should begin to make constructive plans, (e.g. saving money and making, revamping or buying gowns) for the Christmas Dance is little more than two weeks away!

one or more times suitable for use in Hogan-kits being prepared by the JRC unit there.

Another Christmas project almost complete by now is preparation of dozens of small paper "tray favors" made by JRC members for use in hospitals during the Yuletide season. These colorful novelties help brighten the day for shut-ins.

Used toys are also being collected in the Junior Red Cross room at Hillside which are being repaired and made ready for distribution to needy children.

AFRICAN VIOLETS
African Violets will afford the indoor gardener much enjoyment during weeks to come. Their variety is definite and several plants are better than one. Cyclamen, too, are cherished for their exotic blooms.

Mounting excitement accompanies the approach of snowflake splendor. Narbonne's annual Christmas ball to be staged in the Girls' Gym tomorrow night between 8-11 p.m. Gauchos will drift-dance among multi-colored, pastel snowflakes while being serenaded by Carl Jagger and band and the refreshments are to carry through this dreamy theme.

Long or short formal gowns for the girls and dark suits or dinner jackets for the boys will be the most appropriate attire for this event. According to recent observation at various soirees in the area, tulle formals, stars of the past seasons, are giving way to the sleek sophisticated chiffon gowns. Male closets are also in for a few changes via the newly vivid dinner jackets being shown in men's shops this winter. All this color and slink promises to make Snowflake Splendor more gala than ever—tickets are selling for $2 per couple.

A new linotype machine is the object of tomorrow's Candy Cane sale sponsored by the Boy's League. Selling 6,000 of the five cent red and white canes would mean $300 added to the linotype fund.

Climaxing the social season at Harbor College this semester was the Christmas Cotillion held last Friday evening between 8 and 12:30 a.m. in the Recreation Hall.

Admiring the mammoth white Christmas tree trimmed with gold balls were, among others, Joan Ford and Chuck Watson; Marilyn Dexheimer and Bud Tompson; Kathy and Karen Starbird plus dates, John Conneley and your columnist.

New after-the-prom rendezvous in the area were the "Tasman Sea" and the regally elegant, "Plush Horse," but old favorites like the "Polynesian," the "Moulin Rouge" and the "Coconut Grove" were still patronized quite heavily.

Narbonne's journalism and annual staffs "Green & Gold" and "El Eco," respectively are in the midst of planning a gala Christmas party for December 23, complete with caroling and toasting marshmallows in an open fireplace at Mary Beth Higman's sea-side house in Lunada Bay.

Steve Sabin, advertising manager, seems to be making most of the organizational efforts to get this affair off the ground for which all the staff members are extremely grateful.

Hostess, Mary Beth, editorial editor, will be assisted by John Haste. Others attending will be Jim McCampbell, sports editor, and his steady, Donna Stonecypher; Len Clark, managing editor, and Carol Van Dine, a former staff member; Valerie Simes, editor-in-chief, and Dave Wright, a junior at Long Beach State; Debby Allbritton, news editor, and Jim Davis from Brown's Military Academy.

Karen Tucker, Pete Rathnie, Diane Parker and Jim Greene of the annual Staff will represent the "El Eco." What's unusual about this staff party? The journalism

EXTRA CAUTION NEEDED
Earlier darkness at this time of year requires extra driving caution, says the Automobile Club of Southern California. Good drivers compensate for early darkness dangers by reducing their speed, especially in residential areas.
