

"Coming of Christ" Presented By "Project 20" Wednesday

Many of the most ennobling and beautiful works of art in the history of civilization will be utilized to relate the story of Christ's birth, boyhood and ministry, when

"Project 20" presents "The Coming of Christ," Wednesday, December 21, at 8:30 p.m., PST, via channel 4. Sponsored by the U. S. Steel Corporation, the half-hour teletext, in full color, will be seen on the NBC-TV network. Narrated by Alexander Scourby, the teletext will contribute not only a biography of Christ himself, but a picture of the world he lived in, the people around him, and the atmosphere of his time and place. The narration, written by Richard Hanser, will draw heavily on the words of the Bible; and Robert Russell Bennett will compose and conduct a special symphonic score. Use classified ads for quick results. Phone DA 5-1515.

27th Season at Santa Anita Set For December 26

Beautiful Santa Anita Park has scheduled a half-hour earlier start than usual for its banner opening on the holiday Monday, Dec. 26, to usher in its "Traditions of the Turf" winter racing season that will extend 55 days through March 11. Opening the gates at 10:30 a.m. and starting the first of eight races at 12:30 p.m. are designed to facilitate the busy Christmas holiday. Featuring the traditional sprint the $20,000 Palos Verdes Handicap, always has proven particularly attractive.

THOUSANDS OF VISITORS Many thousands of visitors here for the near-by Pasadena Tournament of Roses and the football game, as well as local race goers, will have the opportunity to see at the regular 1 p.m. post time the $25,000 Breeders' Trial Stakes on Friday, Dec. 30, and the double bill of the $25,000 Malibu Stakes and $20,000 Las Flores Handicap on the following Saturday. The New Year holiday racing offering on Monday, Jan. 2, will be the $25,000 San Gabriel 'Cap on the spectacular hillside-infield grass course.

An estimated 33,365,000 program, including $1,170,000 added for 31 stakes, will be presented to celebrate more than 75 years' heritage of breeding and racing Thoroughbreds on E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin's historic Rancho Santa Anita in Arcadia, where modern Santa Anita was opened in 1934 and has been in operation for more than a quarter-century.

HANDICAPS RENEWED Santa Anita's famous racing classics will be the renewals of the $145,000-guaranteed Santa Anita Handicap on Feb. 25; the estimated $170,000 Santa Anita Maturity on Jan. 28; the $100,000-added Santa Anita Derby on March 4; and the $100,000-added San Juan Capistrano 'Cap, the marathon on grass, on March 11. The world's leading stables, horses and jockeys will be seen in action. It will include America's 1960 leading owner in C. V. Whitney, 'Horse of the Year' Kelso, and top riders Eddie Araro, Bill Shoemaker and Johnny Longden.

"ART NOUVEAU" Los Angeles is one of only four American cities to see one of the most unusual art exhibitions ever assembled—"Art Nouveau," representing an art craze which swept the world around the turn of the century. Exhibiting will have its only showing west of the Mississippi at the Los Angeles County Museum beginning Wednesday, January 18, and continuing through March 5.

NEW TAX SCHEDULE U. S. Internal Revenue Service today announced a new tax schedule (Form 2948) to aid taxpayers who are entitled to more liberal deductions for medical expenses because of their age or that of their wives or dependent parents.
