College Representatives Present For Advisement Night, January 12

Representatives of 21 colleges, junior colleges, and technical schools will be on hand for the third annual Education Advisement Night next Thursday, Jan. 12, at Torrance High School, according to Assistant Superintendent Albert Posner.

All sophomore, junior, and senior students at Torrance's three high schools and their parents are invited to attend the sessions. They will have a chance to meet with representatives of the colleges, trade schools, and all of the armed forces.

A general explanatory session in the T.H.S. Auditorium will get underway at 7:30 p.m., with Dr. Carl A. Hee, Torrance High principle, welcoming those in attendance. Theme of the evening is "Focus on the Future."

MEET REPRESENTATIVE

Parents and students then will have a chance to break up into small groups, meeting with college or school representatives of their choice. There will be an opportunity for parents to meet with three or more representatives.

Torrance High's Annual Campaign Will End in Selection of Student Officers

An outstanding campaign is expected in the next few weeks in the contest to select student officers for the 51 various major and minor offices in the Torrance High School student government. Elections will be conducted on Thursday, January 26; the polls being open to the students before school, during snack and lunch. Run-off elections, if needed, will follow on Monday, January 30.

Joanne Carr and Howard Taylor will vie for the coveted office of student body president. Both candidates have been active in many campus activities. She presently holds the office of commissioner of pep, while Taylor is the current student court judge.

OTHER CANDIDATES

Candidates filing for the other major offices are: Judith Meadows and Carol Porterfield for vice-president; John Keith for student court judge; Betty Kautto, Bob Mullen, and Bruce Norman for commissioner of finance; Mary Duarte and Linda Grubb for commissioner of pep; Danny George and Cherie Lacy for commissioner of activities; Carol Echols, Marilyn Holcomb, and Gayle Schenk for commissioner of publicity; Sharonne Mascola, Linda Weister, and Lois Wroge for commissioner of group control.

Maxine Thara is running unopposed for girl's league president. Other girl's league candidates are: Donna Thistle for vice-president; Loretta Kennedy, Sharon Mascolar, and Barbara Zubovich for secretary; Sharon Campbell, Judi McTee, Joann Portlick, and Kathy Singleton for treasurer; Carol Lynn Echols, Patti Fowler, Pamela Isbell, Sue Mathis, Carolyn Shire, and Susan Sparks for historian-reporter.

Running unopposed for boys' league offices are: Bob Weister for president; Richard Woodward for vice-president; Ivor Samson for secretary; Ed Houston for treasurer.

Senior class candidates are: Jerry Goins and Ginny Krauszer for president; Gracie Connett, Dion Dyer, and Kimiye Takeuchi for vice-president; Sachi Ishihara for secretary; Barbara Campbell for treasurer; Kasey Crossman for girls' court representative; John Alter and Steve Parker for boys' court representative; Tommie Chandler for girls' league representative.

JUNIOR CLASS

Vying for the office of junior class president are Ray Bynum and Joyce Takayama. Other junior office seekers are: Deda Davis, vice-president; Jana Davey, Orlene McKnight, Sharon Radi for secretary.

Building Plans May Call for 7-Story Center

Developers of the northwest corner of Sepulveda and Hawthorne may construct a large financial center on the property according to information received by the City Planning Commission Wednesday night.

Planners were told that the Del Amo Estate Company is planning development of the center on ten acres of ground in that vicinity.

Rumors have indicated that the structure might go as high as seven stories, although officials of the developing firm have refused to confirm or deny.

Carson Resident Accidentally Shot Cleaning Rifle

A Carson resident was accidentally shot last week as he cleaned his rifle in his parents' home, 187 W. 234th St. Woodrow Reed, 17, a sailor on leave from the San Diego Naval Base, was shot in the lower body as he was cleaning the gun.

Reed underwent surgery at the hospital ship USS Haven. His condition was listed as "recovering" on hospital records.
