Second Dry Run Ski School Will Start Tuesday

Another dry-land ski school will be conducted at Torrance's El Retiro Park starting Tuesday. Sessions will be conducted for three consecutive Tuesdays starting at 7:30 p.m. and artificial snow will be provided on the last meeting if conditions permit.

Sea Aire Hawks

Led by quarterback Larry Wheeler, the Sea Aire Hawks finished their season with a 26-0 win over La Romeria Park to finish the league play with an 8-1-1 record. Hawks amassed 287 points to their opponents 34 in the ten-game schedule. Hawks held six of their opponents scoreless in their drive for the championship.

Individual trophies were awarded the winners at a sports banquet held at Welteria Park, Saturday, December 17. Team was coached by Howard Larimer, teacher at Seaside School.

PRESS Sports

Have you noticed how quiet Gable House has been all week? The older children are back in school and the younger ones are in the nursery. It was wonderful to have the teenagers and younger bowlers during the holidays, but it is so nice having the peace and quiet back. Of course if anyone visited Gable House during lessons Thursday afternoon, one side of the house was all but quiet. Dale Quay and Jack Frybaum had the ladies bowling in the Scotch Doubles fashion where in the first bowler rolls a ball, the second bowler picks up the spare. This reporter never saw as many splits left for the second bowler to pick up. I think the starter had it in mind if a strike couldn't be made then let's leave a 5-10, 8-10, 6-7-10, 6-7, and 2-7. I over heard some girls remark that they never had so much fun bowling and it was all free!

200 GAMES

There were quite a few 200 games rolled at Gable during this week. Arnold Collett shot a 277; Dott Thompson, 219; Fran Hemmak, 211; K. Muranaka (Nisei), 267; A. Muranaka (Nisei), 272; Nancy Reynolds, 205; Shirley Wolpert, 201; and Don O'Connell (Junior), 204.

PORTRAIT OF A BOWLER

At this time I would like to salute Arden "Skip" Wick, 25, who resides at 22914 Adolph Ave. in Torrance. Last week-end, Skip went bowling with his neighbor and friend, Dorral Gmur, to bowl his best scratch series—185, 275, 201 for a 661. During the 275 game, Skip had nine straight perfect strikes, but in the tenth frame, he began to feel the pressure and rolled the ball hitting the head pin on the nose for a five pin leave. Skip then converted his spare and came back with another perfect strike. Tough break, maybe next time.

The Wick's are quite a bowling family. Skip's wife, Dolores, bowls on the Wednesday morning Top Notchers Scratch League and has a 219 and 213 game to her credit. Her league average is 135 while Skip who bowls on the Tuesday evening Merchants Handicap carries a 147. Skip isn't at all superstitious, but he would never think of leaving the house to bowl without his lucky red shirt, Danny Wick, 6, has rolled a high game of 85 while Billy, 4 looked on and wished for his day to come when he could pick up a feather weight ball.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Jerry Homel made a special announcement that Gable House prides itself in originality—so he is announcing that there will be new contests and thrills in the Moonlight Bowl starting Saturday Jan. 14, at midnight, when the moonlight is the darkest. Make your reservations now so not to be left out.

LEAGUE OF WEEK

The Tuesday Toots No. 2 is this weeks "League of the Week." This handicap league has ten teams with three ladies on each. Team 9 (Honey Jets) is in first place with 40½ wins and 23½ losses. Weekly honors were won by HS, Pat Leopold, 574; HG, J. Singer and Mary Ann Gautney, 205. Seasons high scores thus far are HS, Irene Schenk, 613; and HG, Peggy McCabe, 236. Carol Olson of team 1 has high league average of 129 and high scratch game of 179.

Besides the Honey Jets, team names are Slo Balls, Alley Cats, Screw Balls, Tues No. 2, Alley Oops, Hot Shots, Hits-N-Miss, and note this "Lame Ducks." See you—

Torrance Little Leaguers Name Officers for 1961

Members of the North Torrance Little League board of directors last week selected officers for the 1961 season.

Players agent, ceast, will be Ott Stradler, while the agent for the west will be Stan Ton. Field superintendents will be John Motta, Carl Miller, Akria Okada and Douglas Carlson.

Members of the women's auxiliary of the North Torrance Little League also elected officers at the same meeting.

Heading the auxiliary will be Lois Lester, president; June Rooker, first vice president; Eva Reynolds, second vice president; Betty townsen, secretary; and Mary Lamb, treasurer.

Practically post will be held down by Pauline Bauer, while ways and means com-

Bombers, Saints, Kenny's Win Opening Games

P.V. Bombers, Mehans Saints and Kenny's Shoe Repair won opening night games in the Torrance Recreation Department's Open Basketball League, played Tuesday evening at South High School.

Charlie Davis scored 24 points to pace the Bombers to a 50-39 win over the Cavaliers. Don De Boer hit 11 for the losers.

Joe Rodrigues was top scorer for the Saints, with 10 points, in their 43-39 win over Redondo Ward. Harlen Geach of the losers, grabbed game high point honors with 22 counters.

Avery Bryant's quintet, last years Open League and Torrance City Champs, now playing under the Kenny's Shoe Repair colors, swamped the Williamson Plastering Co. team, 72-16. Kenny's big center, Jim Portis dunked and tipped in 17 of the winners total points.

Industrial Fives Pair Off at North High Gym

Torrance Recreation Department's Industrial Basketball swung into action Tuesday evening in North High School's Gymnasium with Aeronca Manufacturing Co. scoring a 31-23 victory over Ryan Aeros, Border Markets topping Airosearch Knights 39-23 and the Good Co. quintet measuring Harvey Aluminum Co. by a 49-36 count.

Aeronca's Harlan Seelye posted 11 points to tie with Ryan's Louis Petroni, for high point man in the first game.

In the second game Bob Vickers had 16 for the winning Border Markets five and Center Jim Gray 12 for the losing Airosearch Knights. Bill Schwartz with 16 was high man for the Poods Co. five. Bill Whiteside, Harvey Aluminum Center, edged Schwartz for game high score with 17.

ROOKIE OF YEAR

Frank Howard was the 5th Dodger accorded Rookie-of-the-year honors since the award was made official. Jackie Robinson was picked in 1947, Don Newcombe in 1949, Joe Black in 1952 and Jim Gilliam in 1963. Another current Dodger, Wally Moon, also was selected—as a Cardinal—in 1954.
