THROUGH THE YEARS—Will be the topic of conversation at the meeting of the Temple Menorah Sisterhood, January 9, 8 p.m. Past presidents of the group will be honored as the 14th anniversary of the Sisterhood is observed. Talking over old times are (left to right) Mmes. Gene B. Kaufman, immediate past president and present family education chairman; Sydney Siegel, past president and present historian; and Arnold Cowan, past president and present recording secretary.

Sisterhood Observes Anniversary

Fourteen years ago the Temple Menorah Sisterhood was organized, and January 15, 1947, the first meeting was held.

At the regular meeting Monday, Jan. 9 at 8 p.m. all of the past presidents will be honored.

The past presidents include: Mmes. Florence Canter, 1947-48; Martha Rosensweig, 1948-49; Helen Katz, 1949-50; Marie Mohr, 1950-51; Helen Katz, 1951-52; Ada Markell, 1952-53; Sylvia Siegel, 1953-54; Rebecca Cowan, 1954-55; Roberta Bennett, 1955-56; Edna Rappaport, 1956-57; Roberta Bennett, 1957-58; and Annette Kaufman, 1958-60.

Guest speaker for the meeting will be Rodger Beck, Mirror News music editor, and his topic will be "Modern Jewish Musician," according to Mrs. Melvin Schumacher, president.

Beck formerly was on the staff of the Daily Breeze as a reporter and was a resident of the South Bay area. Presently he is a staff writer for the Mirror news. He lives in the Valley with his wife and two children.

For further information or transportation, anyone may call Mmes. Albert Carmona, FR 1-4045; Paul Gassman, FR 5-0616; or Harvey Abramson, FR 7-1208.

Reception Honors Johnny Zamrzlas Newlyweds at Home After Honeymooning in Mexico

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Zamrzla, 2626 Cabrillo Ave., Torrance, December 18 from 3 until 8 p.m., Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Zamrzla, newlyweds, were honored with a buffet reception. Over 95 relatives and friends greeted the bride and groom who recently returned from their honeymoon in Acapulco and Mexico City, Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Zamrzla were married at the Community Methodist Church in Parker, Arizona, December 3 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Zamrzla, the former Pamela Alice Hall, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sig Hall of Parker, Arizona.

IMPORTED GOWN
For her wedding, the former Miss Hall, chose a white satin brocade gown, imported from Italy, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, and a bouffant skirt which ended in a chapel train. Her headpiece of Chantilly lace was embroidered with mother-of-pearl sequins and accented with three teardrop pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Sharon Pearson, cousin of the bride, matron of honor and Miss Sandra Cox, maid of honor, wore identical ballerina length dresses fashioned with bodices of beige brocade with a gold thread effect and beige chiffon skirts. They carried bouquets of talisman roses with beige and gold ribbon streamers.

BRIDESMAIDS
Wearing powder blue dresses with silver threaded bodices full chiffon skirts, the bridesmaids Misses Sharon Slane and Kitty Cowan carried bouquets of white roses with blue and silver ribbon streamers. They wore matching headpieces of blue velvet and net.

Nine year old Debra Hall, sister of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore a beige satin brocade ballerina length dress which was imported from Italy. She carried a basket of white rose petals.

Pard Daniels, wearing an ice-blue dinner jacket, served as ring bearer for the double ring ceremony.

Robert Sears was best man. Ushers were Sigie Hall, brother of the bride; Kenny Klein and Butch Hazel. All of the men wore ice-blue dinner jackets with black trousers.

Over 225 guests attended the wedding and the reception following the ceremony. After their honeymoon in Acapulco and Mexico City the newlyweds are at home at 5241 Pendelton in South Gate.

WHITE DECOR
At the buffet reception held after their return from their wedding trip, the buffet table was beautifully decorated with white candles and mums and wedding bells.

Organ music was played during the afternoon and early evening by Alice Hall Rigell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zamrzla, parents of the groom, showed movies of the newlyweds' honeymoon for the entertainment of the guests.

Among those who attended the buffet reception to greet the bride and groom were: Messers and Mesdames Sig Hall, Parker, Arizona; Bryan Hall, Anaheim; Joseph Zamrzla of Torrance, grandparents of the groom; Frank Carille, Alhambra; Ray Zimmerman, North Hollywood; Dwayne Burkey, Covina; Howard Quiggle, Earl Forsythe, Richard Humphry of Torrance; and Lt. and Mrs. D. C. Cook.
