BOWLING

With Darlene Cope

Gable's gals on the Centinela Traveling League won all three games from Rose Lanes last week. Peggy Walls shot 194-176-193 for a 563 scratch series; Ann Elliott, 196-211-146 for a 553; and Margaret Denzer, 166-193-172 for a 531. The total, 1647 for these three gals, is their highest scratch series in this league. Next week the league visits Gable House on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. How about getting together a large rooting section?

TEN WINNERS

Last Sunday morning, the house Bowl-A-Round roll-offs took place. Out of the thirty contenders, the top ten finishers earned valuable prizes. L. Sommers finished in first place with a 664 to win the Hi-Fi Console; H. Duprie, 653, the TV set; W. Abercrombie, 649, Transistor Radio; Carl Pearce, 645, Watch; W. Caudill, 639, Radio; E. Zuber, 623, Bowling bag; Betty Koop, 620, Bowling bag; A. Shortridge, 616, Tea Set; E. Tubken, 614, Tea Set; and E. Jones, 612, Bowling bag.

TWO FOR ONE

Want to save some money? Here is your chance fellas and gals for two to eat for the price of one. Jerry Homel announced Monday that starting next on Monday and Tuesdays only and only in the Rik-Sha Room, there will be a special feature that upon payment of one luncheon or dinner, the second delicious dish will be on Homel. This idea gives you, the customer, a chance to take your wife, or husband, or whatever the case may be, out to an excellent feast at half the cost. Plan to make Gable House your place of retreat during the week as well as on Week-ends.

TOP SHOTS

Four Juniors rolled some good scores this week at Gable House. Sonny Lush smashed a 231 while Louie Valentini, 215; Ronald Dikes, 207; and Tom Cole, 201.

Don Gurnick smacked a 276 the other evening and Clay Mills was not far behind with a 269.

Margaret Fishbeck, Guys & Dolls, step-laddered a 110-111-112.

To correct any misunderstanding, there will be trophies awarded for the 719 and 8-10 pick ups. Elmo Moen and Noel Ahlness of the Trinity Lutheran League and Barbara O'Leary (Dianas Couples) spared the 7-9. Pat Luidwig (Dianas Couples), June Wald, and James Burchett each picked up the 8-10.

HOUSE HASH

Jerry Homel will be conducting the spare pick-up class this afternoon at one o'clock. Let's see a big turnout.

TOP SCORERS—Front men and prize winners in Gable House's Bowl-A-Round posed with prizes following Sunday's finals. Shown are Jack Frybaum, desk man with the Gable House, corner of Hawthorne and Sepulveda, Hal Duprie, second place winner of the television set; Lawrence Sommers, first place winner of the hi-fi set; Elmer Teebken, 8th place winner of tea set; and Don Gurnick, assistant manager of Gable House.

USC Basketball Greats to Visit

A basketball round-up featuring three of U.S.C.'s '59 first string court greats Bob Hampton, Bill Bloom and All American Johnny Werhas will highlight the Fermin Lasuen Padre Club meeting set for Thursday night according to Paul Sturdivant, president.

Principle speaker Bill Hampton will discuss high school, college and pro basketball and its recent tremendous growth in the harbor area. Lasuen's Coach Robert Hill and John Perini, Padre Club program chairman will introduce the speakers and conduct the panel discussion.

THREE GUESTS

The three guests are all members of the Dockers Pro Team and will be seen in action on Friday, January 13 at Admiral Leigh Gymnasium following the Lausen Padres Bee and Mary Star Varsity engagements with St. Bernards. The Dockers will take on Kirby Shoes in the 9:30 p.m. event according to Don Gregory, manager.

Padre Club business agenda will be given over to discussion of plans for a major project slated for early May. Sturdivant said, Committeemen will be named and initial groundwork laid for the three day spring fund raising event which will benefit the school.

All members are urged to be present and reminded that they may bring guests. A social hour under the direction of Henry Di Harce is set for 7:30 p.m. with meeting and program to follow.
