Junior Woman's Club Plans Busy Season

Torrance Junior Woman's Club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, got off to a flying start at the January business meeting with many plans for a busy new year ahead. The members voted $120 to help support our adopted Indian child for another year. Arrangements are being completed for the Initiation Banquet for the provisional members, Jan. 25, and a fashion show and luncheon to be produced jointly with the Torrance Woman's Club, March 4.

Approval was given for an appropriation of $50, half of a $100 Art Scholarship to be awarded in conjunction with the Senior Woman's Club. The art scholarship is open to all graduate seniors of Torrance schools. The deadline will be Feb. 15. Mrs. Richard Dorothy, art chairman, announced the "Art Nouveau" showing at the Los Angeles County Museum, and invited all to attend.

Tickets are on sale for the Helms Bakery Tour to be held Jan. 26. A tour of the bakery and a delicious lunch are planned. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Jr. High Mothers Honored at Tea

Girls of the graduating class at Stephen M. White Junior High School, 22102 S. Figueroa St., honored their mothers at a traditional tea in Whithall.

Mistress of Ceremonies for the affair was Betty Stephen who introduced the school administrators Albert Cartwright, principal, and Mrs. Louis Virona and John G. Fox, vice principals. Introduction of the honor guests followed as each girl presented her mother to the group.

The Senatorettes, popular singing group at Stephen M. White Junior High School under the direction of Fred H. Wilkins, sang "Hey, There!" and "Where or When." Dr. Isabelle Beck, counselor at Harbor College, talked to the prospective graduates on "Careers for Women."

The tables, graced by white flowers and gleaming silver, and the refreshments were prepared by the hostess class of the homemaking department under the supervision of Mrs. Beatrice Erickson and Miss Joan Reedstrom. Ever-willing PTA members, Mrs. Francis Anania, Mrs. W. L. Harvey, Mrs. Henry Runge, and Mrs. Walter Stewart, assisted in back-stage activities to make the tea a success.

winner will receive a three-week trip to Europe or $1500. The Torrance Juniors will sponsor Intermediate Troop 2393, Brownie Troop 1591 and Brownie Troop 240.

Slim-Trim Class Held

A slim-and-trim class, women's golf lessons, and a housewives bowling league began recently under sponsorship of the Torrance Recreation Department.

The slenderizing class meets at 9:30 a.m. Wednesdays at WALTERIA PARK, 3855 W. 242nd St., under the direction of Margaret Morgan. In addition to slimming exercises, there is volleyball and a "tiny tots" class.

Children must be at least three years old and there is a 50-cent registration fee. The three-month-long bowling league will meet Tuesdays at the Bowl-o-Drome, 21915 Western Ave., starting at 9:30 a.m.

Birthday Council Held by Women's Club Federation

Annual Birthday Council will be held by the Marina District, 18, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Friday, Jan. 27, at the Santa Monica Bay Woman's Club, 1210 Fourth St., Santa Monica, starting with registration at 9:15 a.m.

Mrs. Earl Hazeltine, state president, will be the morning speaker. The president of the Santa Monica Bay Woman's Club, Mrs. Edmund Schobler, will welcome members.

Farewell Party Slated by Alphas

A "Farewell Party" and business meeting will gather South Bay Alpha Delta Pi alumnae this coming Wednesday evening, January 25.

A farewell will be given to chapter president, Mrs. Robert Harnar Jr. A business meeting will elect and install a new president.

Mr. and Mrs. Harnar and family are at present residents of Manhattan Beach, but will be moving to Detroit, Michigan this month. Harnar is with the Ford Motor Company.

Also included in the business meeting will be plans for a calendar of meetings and special events for the coming year.

Mrs. Jack Kettler of 2540 Via Carrillo, Palos Verdes will be the hostess for the evening starting at eight o'clock.

'Neptune's Interlude' Theme of Auxiliary Sponsored Fashion Show

Seashells and mermaids will be scattered about the Club Del Mar in Santa Monica on Saturday, Feb. 11, when the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary luncheon and fashion show is presented.

"Neptune's Interlude" is the theme of the affair, which is the first one planned by the auxiliary members. Mrs. James R. Weber, chairman of the luncheon fashion show, will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Lewellan Jr., tickets; Clarence Van Lingen, program; William Colberth and Robert Miller, donations; and Jay Ingels, reservations, who can be reached at FR 9-7808.

Others who are assisting are Mrs. Frank McCormick, door prizes; Johnson Lovett, publicity; and Ben L. Krueger, patrons. Mrs. Frank H. Forester, president of the auxiliary, will arrange for the hostesses.

Proceeds from the major affair will be applied to additional furnishings for the nursery. The nursery is the auxiliary's principal project since its organization in April, 1959.

Social hour for the luncheon will be at 12:30 p.m., and luncheon show at 1:30 p.m. Fashion coordinator will be Eunice Arnold.

Sportswear, daytime dresses, evening and cocktail attire will be included among the showings at the gala affair. Fashions will be provided by several women's apparel shops in Torrance and the South Bay area. Several major door prizes will be awarded.

Betrothal Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Phillips, 1730 W. 234th St., announce the engagement of their daughter, Lorall Lee, to Guy Blaine Cargo, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Blaine Cargo, 1714 W. 234th St., Torrance.

Miss Phillips is a student at Torrance High School. A graduate of Torrance High School, the benedict-elect is presently employed by McKesson and Robbins in Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and their family lived in Torrance for 12 years and the Cargo family have lived in the city for eight years.

William Cargo is assistant manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance office in Lawndale and plans for his son, Guy to join his staff in early March.

The happy betrothed couple plan a July wedding.

Serra Students Honor Founder

Week of January 16 was officially proclaimed Chaminade Week at Serra High School, to honor the 111th anniversary of the death of Father William Joseph Chaminade, founder of the Marianist Society whose members form the teaching staff at Serra.

Religious activities are scheduled daily and will climax in an assembly for the entire student body on Friday, the 20th. Guest speakers at the assembly will be Father William O'Connell and Bro. James Loughran, both on the staff of Chaminade High School in Los Angeles.

Father Chaminade founded the Society of Mary Marianists in 1817 in Bordeaux, France, during the hectic period that followed the French Revolution.

Today there are 3000 Marianists in ten provinces throughout the world. Marianists in America conduct thirty high schools and three colleges in an area extending from Puerto Rico to Hawaii.

HOLIDAY VISITOR
Mrs. Ralph Madden Sr. returned to her home in Linwood, New Jersey, after a winter vacation with her son, Ralph Madden, and his family of 2018 W. 180th St., Torrance.

Rumage Sale Scheduled Today

Mother's group of Harbor Christian School at 225th and Vermont, Harbor City, is sponsoring a Rummage Sale. The sale will be held on the school grounds, January 19, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. All proceeds will go towards the school building fund.

Public is cordially invited to attend.
