

LET'S GO
BOWLING
With Darlene Cops

As usual, Gable House was jumping with eager bowlers Thursday afternoon with one complete side of the house devoted to the ladies' class for their first experience with Low Ball. Jerry Homel tried to explain the game, but there were still some students who were a little confused. So note to waste any more time than necessary, Jerry and Jack Frybaum demonstrated a few frames.

MORE STRIKES

The gals never knew they could roll so many strikes. If the first ball went into the gutter, the bowler received a strike. Mary Ann Gautney shot five straight strikes; Gable House was to have its first 300 game. But with Jerry heckling and the ladies staring and cheering her on, Mary Ann managed to keep her 6th ball on the lane and knock down two pins.

The students were to roll two games and if anyone scored an 87 or under, Gable House would award her a trophy. Believe it or not, four ladies did and they were Marilyn Biggs, 80; Flo Schow, 87; Fran Sayer, 85; and Jessie Henderson, 80.

Jerry promised a Low Ball tournament to take place some time in February, so for those who weren't complete confused, sign up now. There will be another class next Thursday afternoon at the same time but Jerry plants a different activity. So bring your friends and come and join the fun.

TOP NOTCHERS

Trophy winners, here is your recognition for high games or splits. Nancy Reynolds shot a 252; Peggy Walls, 231; Dot Engle, 221; Joyce Ewart (Mother and Daughter League), 218; Grace Lynch (Gable Owls), 214; M. Olson, 214; and Charlene Townsend (Sunsetters), 205.

One gentleman, Earl Dikes, shot a high game of 255 while John McMillan rolled an all spare game of 185. Junior scorers were Lou Valentini, 218; Roger Parkman, 218; Don Murphy, 214; and B. Black, 204.

Splits spared for the week are credited to the following: Craig Newman (South High), 8-10; Larry Slocu, 7-9; Lora Lee Kelly, 8-10; and Bernice Marshall (Scratch Grouchers), 7-9.

LEAGUE OF WEEK

The Tuesday night handicap Forresters League holds the weekly honors. They have ten teams with five members on each. The Forresters League is the first one I have come into contact with that bowls the split season. This means the individual games are the same, but the teams' wins and losses are started over again at mid-season. This gives each team a double chance to try for the top and eliminates any one team from taking a commanding lead.

In the third week, team 6, Four Butts and a Stogie, are in first place with 9½ wins and 2½ losses. The names and averages of this team are as follows: M. Dickson, 123; D. Dickson, 139; M. Young, 148; W. Geisenhaver, 172; and S. Geisenhaver, 124.

Weekly honors are held by MHS, M. Young, 624; MHG, D. Campbell, 145; WHS, S. Rowe, 612; and WHG, S. Geisenhaver, 240. Season high scores to date are held by MHS, M. Rowe, 667; MHG, D. Dease, 263; WHS, F. Caveney, 626; and WHG, S. Caveney, 249.

SPECIAL NOTES

Remember the 50 and over free bowling class this morning at 10 o'clock. Ruth Caudle will be instructor. The Centinela Traveling League visits Bowl-O-Drome Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. These gals are in a winning streak, so let's get out and support them.

'THE MOST URGENT'

Repeal of the excise taxes on passenger fares and communication services were characterized by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce as "the most urgent" issue in the transportation and communication fields confronting the upcoming session of Congress. The Chamber also said that two other issues regarded as urgent concerned the common ownership of transportation modes, as well as placing the postal service on a pay-as-you-go basis.

WHAT RULES?—Fermin Lasuen Cees John Shuka and Vic Trutanich wonder what happened to the rule book as Padre Club members Jerome Donner, San Pedro; Leo Foley, Miraleste; and Andrew Trutanich, San Pedro, preview new plays to be seen at benefit basketball classic Feb. 4 for Lasuen athletic fund. —Photo by Chris Paturzo

Comedy Highlights Will Sparkle Feb. 4
Fermin Lasuen Basketball Classic

Conventional basketball will be well seasoned with comic capers when the Padre Club presents the second annual Basketball Classic Saturday, February 4 at 7:30 p.m. in the Admiral Leigh Gymnasium, San Pedro, for the benefit of the Fermin Lasuen Athletic Fund.

Court play featuring games between the Padre Club "Tigers" vs. Lasuen Cees and Dees and Lasuen Faculty vs. the Junior Varsity will be punctuated with songs, skits, and surprises according to Robert Hill, general chairman.

TIGER TOUTER

Touting for his "Tigers" coach Robert Rados noted that his elder aggregation is set to debut in full costume and that to back their hardwood hilarity he has secured a second string of substitutes known priggishly as the Free Loader Four who are guaranteed to rock the stands.

Undaunted Tom Robinson and Ernest Martines, coaches of the Lasuen lightweights, predicted an easy win over the fathers. "We may be short on height but we're long on speed and knowledge," they stated. Father Joseph Pekarcik, coach of the Lasuen Faculty, saw no threat in the Junior Varsity. "Our faculty players are in the greatest shape in the history of the school," he said. "Secret workouts have produced dark horse shooters who will completely confuse the opposition."

Charles Vegher, pro-tem coach for JV's had this to say, "Coach Bob Hill has given our boys too much floor knowledge for the Faculty to cope with. Besides, they're short on depth so we should be ahead all the way."

QUARTET FEATURED
Jerome Donner, master of ceremonies for the event, notes that well-known Free Loader Four Barbershop Quartet of which he is a member along with Norm Oberman, Ed Daut and Jim Skiffing ton, will entertain. Padre Club president Paul Sturdivant will welcome guests and briefly outline the purposes of the organization and its activities in behalf of the Fermin Lasuen athletic fund. Light refreshments will be available under the direction of Vernon Butcher and prizes will be awarded. Tickets nominally priced at $1 adults, 50 cents students, and 25 cents children under 12 will be available at the door or from members of the Lasuen student body.

Faculty team members include Messrs. Robert Bain, Ernest Martinez, Robert Hill, David Thorne, Ernest Hernandez, and Frank Gompert. Padre Club "Tigers" roster will be made up of Messrs. Leo Foley, Paul Sturdivant, Jerome Donner, John O'Malley, Ted Year, Nick Randazzo, Jerry Rodin, Mac McOsker, Larry Hanson, Lee Bodich, Joe Garcia, Henry DiHarc, Frank Tedesco, Henry J. Smith, and Tony Alesso.
