

McManus-Escarzaga Vows Exchanged at Nuptial Mass

At 11 o'clock a.m., Jan. 21 at St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church, Redondo, Miss Beverly McManus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Koch, 22802 Ladeene Ave., pledged her vows to Joseph Escarzaga. Mrs. Gabriel Escarzaga of Hollywood is the mother of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Charles Ara officiated at the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass. Wedding march was played by Mrs. Mary Stoeger, organist and she accompanied Mrs. Evalyn Regan, who sang "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus."

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white tulle and Chantilly lace fashioned with a scalloped neckline accented with sequins and mother of pearl. Her silk illusion veil was held by a crown of pearls and crystals.

Miss McManus carried a white prayer book and rosary given to her by Mrs. Escarzaga. Her bouquet perched atop the prayer book was of white carnations, gladioli and two white orchids.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Pat White. Bridesmaids were Mmes. Carole McManus, Barbara Gonzales and Miss Diana Buckland. They wore identical lavender sheaths with bouffant overskirts. Matching hats with face veils and bouquets of white carnations with lavender streamers completed their attire.

Best man was Joseph Bours, and Paul LaBeck, George Kueneman and Bob Trigon served as ushers.

The bride's brother, Tommy Koch, served as ring-bearer and Miss Amy Genard was the flower girl.

At the reception held at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Redondo, Miss Luana Mayville registered the guests.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in San Francisco.

Mrs. Joseph Escarzaga, a graduate of Torrance High School, is presently employed by Tel-Autograph Corp. of Los Angeles. Her groom is a deputy in the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.

Finance Drive; Foreign Economic Policy Workshop Slated by League of Voters

League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Peninsula will hold its annual finance drive Feb. 14, according to Mrs. R. S. Calvert, finance chairman.

On Feb. 15 at the home of Mrs. George Welsh, 5302 Bayridge Road, Palos Verdes, the League will conduct a foreign economic policy workshop.

The League is a non-partisan organization dedicated to the promotion of political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government. Studies of issues are made within the League and subsequently the conclusion drawn from such studies are supported. One of the most recent studies covered the recreation needs of Torrance.

Candidates for office are never supported by the League although one of its most valuable activities is to sponsor candidate meetings where the public may meet all candidates for particular offices including those of state assembly and United States representative. This is also the area of greatest expense to the League as it involves printing costs for voters information and candidate questionnaires.

The discussion at the home of Mrs. Welsh will focus on liberalizing trade and making adjustments for injured industries and communities, according to Mrs. Lloyd Money, chairman of the foreign economic policy committee.

In charge of workshop arrangements will be Mmes. Lee Bower and Norman Peterson, and Miss Julia Kelly. Any woman interested in the promotion of political responsibility through informed and active participation in government is invited to attend the Wednesday meeting. Membership in the local chapter of the League of Women Voters is open to all women of voting age in the South Bay area.
