

PTA News

EDISON PTA honored one of its charter members at a recent meeting when an honorary life membership was awarded to Mike Dominguez. Dominguez was cited for his activities aiding youth and community. Included are services to Scouting, Little League, Pony League and the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association.

An original skit depicting Founder's Day by Mrs. Robert Brigham was given. Actors in the skit were Bert Richardson, Art Lester, Walt Wheelis, Mike Dominguez, Robert Brigham, Donald Credell and Bob Reiner.—Mrs. Carl Miller.

HARBOR CITY PTA held its Founders Day program with particular honors going to the past presidents. The presidents were feted at a delicious luncheon and during the PTA program each were presented with a plant.

Mrs. Dallas Wallick, Founders Day chairman, presented a baseball theme program as each past president was introduced. Special musical versions of "Take me out to the Ballgame" were sung by Mmes. Leland Van Buren, John Blencowe, and Michael Travers attired in baseball uniforms waving flags, bats and balls.

Life membership pins were awarded to Mrs. Stephen Silkotch, president and Mrs. Lulu Higgs, a pioneer of Harbor City PTA.

A tie between Mrs. Phyllis Chase and Mr. William Cleary won the room prize and Mrs. Armon Hartlieb was the "Mother of the Month."

FERN-GREENWOOD PTA held their association meeting February 16 at the Fern cafeteria.

Twelve members of the executive board presented a skit, "First PTA on the Moon." Their costumes were created by the members of the cast and were very colorful.

Members of the cast were: Mmes. H. F. Hunter, Wm. H. Tolson, M. F. Kraegel, H. S. Rogers, W. W. Nation, Bert Lynn, E. O. Erickson, F. C. Barnett, D. D. Watkins and R. L. Schwartz.

Mrs. Paul Shinoda, honorary life membership chairman, presented special membership pins to Mmes. Virginia Hendrex and Velora Murphy, school clerks. Honorary life memberships were awarded to Mrs. J. D. Stoneking and Bert Lynn.

JEFFERSON PTA Mrs. J. A. Smith was presented the honorary life membership award for outstanding contribution to children and youth of the community.

Mrs. Smith is active in the Red Cross, March of Dimes and Community Chest. She is also a PTA chairman, Girl Scout leader, room mother and a former Brownie co-leader.

A native of Fort Worth, Texas, Mrs. Smith attended school in Carlsbad, New Mexico and Huntington Park, California.

The Smiths are parents of one daughter, Allana age 10 who is in the fifth grade at Jefferson School.

223 STREET PTA celebrated the fifth birthday of the school and paid tribute to Founders Day last Tuesday, Feb. 14. Honored guests were Mmes. Francis Anania, James Ganderman, Willis Albaugh, Hilda Seykota, Willie Washington, and David Goolsby.

Mrs. Robert Dossy, Founders Day chairman, wore a typical old fashion costume, while others portrayed "Today and Tomorrow" in keeping with the theme of "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow." The skit was called "Could This Be You," and honored all past presidents of the school PTA.

As a special surprise Mrs. R. C. Heitmeyer, president, was presented with a honorary life membership pin for the year 1960-61.

During the business meeting a nominating committee was elected to select officers for the coming year. Serving on this committee will be Mmes. Harold Btrgner, John Bankard, Eddie Grijalva, John O'Neal and Marie Lornez, principal of 223 Street School.
