Exotic Locale for Junior, Senior Woman's Club Fashion Show Luncheon

Mrs. A. Z. England, of the Torrance Woman's Club, and Mrs. B. R. McRee of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Marina District, C.F.W.C., report that final arrangements are being completed for their fashion show and luncheon to be held at 11:30 a.m., March 4 at the Ports o' Call, Berth 76, San Pedro. This will be one of the first fashion shows to be given at this very new and very exotic restaurant.

Sports and casual wear will be shown from Pat Speer's dress shop of Palos Verdes. Mrs. Pat Speer has consented to commentate the show. Cocktail dresses and bridal wear will be shown by the Candle-Lite Shop of Torrance. This popular shop had one of its gowns represented at the recent presidential inaugural festivities.

Four members from each club have volunteered to act as models. From the Torrance Woman's Club will be Mmes. J. P. Bay, Sid Gans, David Lyman, and H. R. Altermatt. Representing the Juniors will be Mmes. Joseph Boylan, Charles W. Bennett, William Faulds and R. K. Petrat. Miss Sandy Lilley, the daughter of Mrs. Clayton T. Lilley, will participate as flower girl. Tickets may be obtained by calling DA 6-7600 or FA 8-1434.

Card Party to Aid Heart Fund

Wesley Maginson, noble grand of Odd Fellows, and William Rice announce that the Odd Fellows will hold a card party benefit for the Heart Fund.

Silver Crest Rebekah Lodge will assist the Odd Fellows with the arrangements. Among those who will serve are Mmes. Allen Van Zee, noble grand; Robert Van Gennairo, vice grand; Marie Bochart; Victor Laratt; Sam Brown; A Clay Applegate; and Walter Tibbet.

According to Noble Grand Magnison, the public is invited to attend.

South Bay Women Host Inter-Post Legionnaire Meet

South Bay Women's post No. 692, The American Legion, will be hostess for the February Inter-Post meeting of the 19th District Women Legionnaires, according to Dorothy Boyle, commander. Meeting will be held Thursday, February 23, at 8 p.m. at South Bay Legion Hall, 412 S. Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

Representatives from American Legion Posts throughout Los Angeles county will be on hand to hear guest speaker, Dr. Donald Cortub, chairman of Southern California Citizens Committee for Decent Literature. Program is under the leadership of the community service chairman Ann Serpan. Junior past commander Agnes Clemons will be in charge of the Social hour.

All women veterans are invited to attend this meeting.

EDDIE R. SMITH, electrician's mate second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie R. Smith, Sr., of 18311 Dorman Ave., Torrance, and husband of the former Miss Nanette C. Nelhardt of Gardena, departed Norfolk, Va., Jan. 26, aboard the seaplane tender USS Valcour for a cruise in the Persian Gulf as flagship for Commander Middle East Force.

Auxiliary Dance To Aid Little League Funds

Saturday, Feb. 25 from 9:30 p.m. until 1 a.m. at the American Legion Hall, the Torrance Central Little League Women's Auxiliary will sponsor a dance, "Baseball Craze." Les Tronsier and his orchestra will play dance music.

The proceeds will benefit the Little League and help to further construction at Mobil Park. Door prizes will be given.

For further information, Jean Hagenbaugh, ticket chairman, may be contacted at FA 8-2633.

Mrs. Chris Xanthakis is president of the auxiliary and she urges everyone to attend for an evening of fun with a purpose.

PARTY HOSTS

Among recent party hosts at the Pen and Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. O'Donnell of Torrance, who entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Howe, who are visiting here from Wilmette, Ill.

SURPRISED—Mrs. O. L. Winn, press chairman for the Calle Mayor PTA, was surprised when she was presented the Honorary Life Award at the recent PTA meeting. Mrs. Winn had been led to believe it would be someone in the PTA play—sure enough, it was she.
