PTA News

CARL STEELE PTA honored the founders of National PTA past presidents, and outstanding members of the community at the February 9 meeting.

A clever skit by Mrs. R.D. Worshum, Founder's Day chairman, brought the ghosts of Alice Birney and Phoebe Hearst to the stage to reminisce about the beginnings of PTA. The two ghosts, played by Mrs. Ray Knox and Mrs. R. H. Lawson were appropriately dressed for the occasion with stylish hats topping their white sheets.

Past presidents were then escorted to the stage and presented with nosegays of violets in remembrance of their past services. Honored were Mesdames Crockett, Erving, Hawkins, Green, Huback, and Lambert.

Escorts, who also gave brief explanations of local PTA charitable donations were Messrs. Jackson, Weiland, Griffith, Spooner, Levine, and Kasser.

PTA membership pins were presented to the following for outstanding service to the community: Mrs. Ray Knox, Mrs. Rob't Golden, Mrs. A. D. Hawkins, Doyle Wood, John Ernst, Mm. Hendren, and Pat Hogue. A Special award went to Charles Schoendist for his efforts in making Toucan Street's Candy Lane an annual Christmas affair.

Honorary Life membership chairman, Mrs. Pat McClure, aided by the Jurco family, then announced Mrs. Ivan Jurco as recipient of the Honorary Life membership award for many years of community service.

During the business meeting preceding the program a short talk on the School Support program was given by Mrs. Mark Wright of the Torrance School Board. Mr. Jim Jackson announced Father-Son Night will be held February 16 at 7:30 in the Steele Cafetorium. Men and boys only. Free films of world series and Rams Hi-Lights.

A certificate of appreciation for the help, cooperation and support of Girl Scouting was presented to John Kasser, principal, by Cynthia Dawson Troop 2080, on behalf of BIGSS neighborhood (Brownies, Intermediates, Girl Scouts, and Seniors).

Mrs. J. M. Maxwell read the nominating committee report as follows: Mrs. M. H. Marquardt, president; Mrs. H. Edner, first vice president; Mrs. V. Craig, second vice president; Mrs. K. Spooner, third vice president; Mrs. Paul Hopper, fourth vice president; Mrs. J. M. Maxwell, secretary; Mrs. O. Henry, treasurer; and Mrs. Ben Everett, historian.

Nominated from the floor were Mrs. H. Ender, president; Mrs. R. D. Worshum, treasurer; and Mrs. J. Tomblin, fourth vice president. Election of officers will be held at the March 9 meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m. instead of the previously announced 1:30 p.m.

-Mrs. J. Candanhead

HAMILTON PTA convened at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 16, in the cafetorium to witness a fashion show of clothes made by the seventh and eighth grade students of Mrs. Lorene Shoup's home-making class. Mrs. A. J. Stillwell, program chairman, said that Mrs. Anna Hause, eighth grade teacher, assisted Mrs. Shoup in organizing this special annual event.

A short and novel Founder's Day skit was presented ed by students and the presentation of an honorary life membership award to an outstanding citizen in youth work was made. Mrs. Charles Griffen had charge of this portion of the program.

During the brief business meeting, conducted by Mrs. W. H. Bayliff, president, a nominating committee of five members was elected.

Following adjournment, a tour was made of the shop room. The shop features woodworking, metal work, drafting and plastic work and also accommodates seventh and eighth grade boys from the Arlington and Crenshaw schools. Frank Jones is shop instructor.

Third grade mothers were hostesses for the evening and child care was provided in room 7.

-Mrs. W. Y. Wells

ANZA PTA presented its annual follies, February 16, in the school cafetorium at 8 p.m. A trip around the world was taken in the ocean going ship called the "USS ANZA" and many countries visited. Teachers and parents performed songs, skits, dances and pantomimes depicting the various countries.

The theme of the program was the "The Crew's Birthday Party" which celebrated the birthday of PTA and honored its founders. Before the ship left port, the person receiving the Honorary Life Membership Award was announced and presented with the Honorary Life pin. Upon arriving at the "Port of Anza," the crew and audience were served birthday cake and coffee by PTA fathers who were hosts for the evening.
