PTA News

MEADOW PARK PTA—Mrs. Louis Sodaro, president, presided over the February meeting held in the Meadow Park Cafeteria. Mrs. Walter Marshall, chairman of the honorary life committee, presented the honorary life awards to Mrs. Donald Silbaugh and George W. Schindler.

Mrs. Silbaugh, mother of three children and a resident of Torrance for seven years, has been very active in Meadow Park PTA. Among her many duties she successfully handled ways and means chairman, newsette chairman, carnival chairman, room representative for two years, worked on many committees and filled in where ever an officer or chairman dropped out. She works in the school library and has been nominated to run for president for 1961-1962. Mrs. Silbaugh also participates in activities of Scouts and Little League.

George W. Schindler, native Californian, father of four children and a Torrance resident for seven years, also has been very active in community welfare. His first project in our community was the successful campaign for street lights in his area of 500 homes. Schindler has worked with Cub Scouts for four years, served as cubmaster for three years, won a Scouters award, served as medicine man for the Wowascobe tribe of Torrance YMCA Indian guides for two years. He assists also with school projects and Little League.

Other guests of honor at the Founder's Day program were past presidents Mrs. V. B. Terry, president of Torrance Council; Mrs. William Poser, seventh vice president of Torrance Council, and Mrs. James Anagnost, financial secretary of Torrance Council, and parliamentarian for Meadow Park PTA.

Mrs. Ralph Locke was in charge of Founder's Day program. A special cake was baked for the occasion, served with coffee by the fourth grade room mothers.—Mrs. J. Kallenberger.

PERRY ELEMENTARY PTA—Thursday, Feb. 16 was the date of the annual Founder's Day program.

A humorous skit was given with Roscoe Anthony depicting Perry School's past joys and sorrows. Dennis Byersdorf gave the future forecast for Perry Elementary PTA which came to a hilarious end when Byersdorf said that they had finally found a way of getting rid of long winded PTA speakers after which, he was led away from the auditorium with a rope around his neck.

Our honorary life chairman, Mrs. Wm. Fox had a clever way of announcing the honorary life recipients—first one was a series of pieces of a picture as a phase of this woman's life was foretold and put together. When completed a picture of Mrs. Curtis Carbutt was the first recipient.

The second one was left standing after one by one the audience had to sit down because they had not done something which Mrs. Fox read. Roscoe Anthony fit all the descriptions thus was our second honorary life recipient.

This program was preceded by a short business meeting and by folk songs by Mrs. Horace Pratt's third grade class room.

Mothers of the third grade children were hostess at the social hour ending the very interesting meeting.

There were five students from Perry School who received certificates from Mrs. Kenneth McVey for completing a course in parliamentary procedure.

Announcements were also made of the Polio Clinic to be held in the cafeteria of Perry School on March 3. A $1 donation for each shot of Five dollars minimum per family.

A First Aid course is being planned on Feb. 27 and will meet every Monday for five Mondays at 9:30 a.m.
