St. Patrick's Day Dinner Planned By Holy Name Society

Holy Name Society of St. Catherine Laboure Parish in Torrance will hold its annual St. Patrick's Day corned-beef and cabbage dinner, Sunday, March 19, in the parish hall, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd. Dinner will be served from 1 to 7:30 p.m.

Vincent C. Tyrrell, chairman and William Fuller, co-chairman of the event, cordially invite the public to attend. According to Don Ridder and Frank Conaty, committeemen in charge of the kitchen, the menu will consist of corned beef, cabbage, boiled potatoes, french bread, salad, apple pie, coffee, tea or milk. Donations for the dinner will be $1.50 for adults and 75c for children.

To add to festivities of affair, music, entertainment will be provided by singing waiters. Prizes to be given away consist of a Curtis Mathes Stereo Hi-Fi Am and Fm Radio and a Derailleur bicycle.

St. Catherine Laboure Parish in Torrance has a registration of approximately 3,000 families. The Reverend Raymond R. Tepe is the pastor, and is assisted by Reverend William Hollinger and Reverend Max O. Villanueva who has recently been assigned to St. Catherine Laboure Parish.

Proceeds of the event will be used to add to the building fund for three additional classrooms for St. Catherine Laboure School which are now well under construction.

Other committeemen working on the dinner are head waiters—George Carter and John Porter and George Neeland, decorations.

TOO MANY COOKS—Plans for the annual St. Patrick's Dinner planned by the Holy Name Society of St. Catherine Laboure parish won't have too many cooks. Sure an'begorra the Irish will be out in full force for the corned-beef and cabbage cooked by (l to r) John Porter, Don Ridder, Vince Tyrrell, Frank Conaty and George Carter. Tyrrell is chairman for the affair and assures the public they are invited to attend from 1 to 7:30 p.m., March 19 at the parish hall, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd.

Get-Acquainted Affair Held for New AAU Women Members

During the State Convention in May of last year the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch of the American Association of University Women was given a citation for having made the highest net gain in membership of all the 118 branches in the California State Division.

This year they are continuing their rapid growth with 55 new members according to Mrs. Donald W. Randolph, membership chairman, who recently met with the new members for a get-acquainted affair in her home. At that time Mrs. Randolph introduced the new members to the various study group chairmen, who in turn told of the activities and studies available to all interested members of the branch.

The list of new members includes two who have transferred from other branches: Mrs. Leila McCaleb from the Mill Valley, California branch, now a resident of Hollywood Riviera and Mrs. William G. McLaughlin, from the Birmingham, Alabama branch, now residing in Torrance.

Members new to the AAUW are: Mmes. Vincent A. Barnato, James E. Hardie, Fred C. Allen, Wayne Butterbaugh, Don A. Root, Charles W. Satterfield, Peter B. Thorpe, George B. AWARDED—For his service to the community in youth work, Roscoe Anthony, legislative chairman of Perry School PTA, shared the spotlight at the Founders Day meeting held recently with Mrs. Curtis Carbutt, first grade teacher, when given honorary life membership awards.

Local Resident Contest Winner

Mrs. D. E. Eubank of 816 Crenshaw, Torrance, is richer by a record album today, her reward for stumping radio disc jockey Joe Niagara of KBIG Catalina in his tongue-twister contest.

Mrs. Eubank's entry, which Niagara couldn't pronounce swiftly and correctly three successive times was, "Great glossy goblets give glittery glints galore. Her prize was a hi-fi album.

"Niagara Falls" is the name of the contest, conducted on the Catalina station each weekday morning from 7 to 10 o'clock by their new air personality.
