

News of Servicemen

TERENCE A. SPISAK, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spisak of 418 Swope, Torrance, is participating, Feb. 13 to 28, aboard the attack cargo ship USS Vermillon, in this year's largest Atlantic Fleet amphibious striking exercise in the Caribbean.

MARINE PVT. JOHN P. VANDEVENTER, son of Mr.

and Mrs. H. Vandeventer of 168 E. 215th St., Torrance, completed four weeks of individual combat training, Feb. 10, at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif. The course included the latest infantry tactics, first aid demolitions, field fortifications and advanced schooling on weapons. Trainees learn that all Marines are basically infantrymen, whether they serve as cooks, typists, truck drivers, or with aviation units.

ARTHUR L. HEANEY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald T. Heaney of 22732 Madison Ave., and THOMAS K. FITZPATRICK, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. Fitzpatrick of 3321 Danaba St., all of Torrance, graduated from recruit training, March 3, at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif. The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries. CHARLES L. MORRILL, apprentice petty officer second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gail E. Morrill of 1230 E. Renton St., Torrance, graduated, March 3, from nine weeks of Recruit Training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif. Apprentice petty officers are chosen from the ranks of the seaman recruits to assist Company Commanders. The selection is based on individual aptitude and leadership qualities.

DAVID A. PRYOR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roman Pryor of 4106 Carmen, Torrance, was graduated from recruit training, Feb. 10, at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif. The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

ARMY PVT. MELVYN D. GRAVETT, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gravett, 2476 W. 255th St., Lomita, completed the transportation movement specialist course at The Transportation School, Fort Sustain, Va., Feb. 21. Gravett was trained in the techniques and procedure of moving military supplies and personnel by rail, water, motor and air transport. The 19-year-old soldier entered the Army last August and completed basic combat training at Fort Ord, Calif. A 1959 graduate of Narbonne High School, he was employed by Bain Printing Service, before entering the Army.

Wins Contest
Mrs. Jo Ann Christman of 4708 Jacques St., Torrance, is the winner of a Ranch Pack assortment of fancy groceries and produce in the "Handy Hint" contest conducted by the radio program Homemaker's News over station KBIG, Catalina.

exercise Long Pass, a mobility training exercise, at the Clark Air Force Base-Etobetsberg training area in the Philippines. The exercise, which involved almost 6,000 U.S. Army and Air Force personnel from the continental U.S., Hawaii, Okinawa and the Philippines, ended Feb. 22. Miller returned to Okinawa upon conclusion of the exercise where he is a radio telephone operator in the infantry's Mortar Battery. He entered the Army in June 1959 and completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Miller, 2426 W. 236th St., attended Torrance High School.
