LINCOLN PTA — Mrs. Wyn Wherry, principal of T. Mooney, program chairman for the Lincoln elementary school PTA, announces that the public is invited to attend the meeting at 7:30 p.m. today, at the school cafeteria. Guest speaker will be El-evening will be Mrs. Harold Erickson, publicity; and Mrs. James Hendrick, record book.

Hostesses for the evening will be Rooms K-1 and 5. —Mrs. Harold Erickson

HARBOR CITY PTA nominated officers at the recent board meeting. Nominated were Mmes. Robert Rohl, president; Clarence Bramley, first vice president; Robert Pack, second vice president; Howard Mason, third vice president; Floyd Paine secretary; John Gerster, Treasurer; Jerry Henderson, auditor; Charles Smith, historian; and Stephen Silkotch, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Anders Klungrester, ways and means, reminded each one that the rummage sale is April 5. A luncheon is planned for this month and a paper drive is scheduled for May.

Three new Brownie troops have been sponsored by Lincoln PTA.

Regular meeting will be March 14 at 7:30 p.m. and guest speaker will be from the bureau of internal revenue.

FLEMING JUNIOR HIGH PTA presented the honorary life membership to John Conshafter during observance of Founders Day last week, announced Mrs. Ted Hachiya, president.

Conshafter at present is president of the Narbonne Coordinating Council and has been active in youth activities since becoming a resident of Lomita in 1955. He has been busy with the Boy Scouts, Little League and Babe Ruth baseball and has been "on the ball" for all PTA fund raising events, in addition to holding several offices on the Lomita-Harbor City Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Conshafter, past president of Anestoy PTA, received a life membership previously, which makes her a shareholder along with her husband in one of the most noteworthy enterprises of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers, that of making loans and scholarships available for worthy students entering college.

Officers-elect for the 1961-62 year for Fleming PTA are Mrs. Albert Dudley, president; Mrs. Richard Woods, vice-president; Mrs. Merle Gould, second vice-president; Mrs. Michael Travers, third vice-president; Mrs. Harold Hastings, treasurer; Mrs. John Blencoe, secretary; Mrs. Louis Stango, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Richard Chitwood, historian; and Mrs. R. A. Haller, auditor.

Also honored were Founders Day guests, past presidents Mmes. Leland Van Burden and Joseph Butler, who with outgoing president Ted Hachiya, received corsage.

Mrs. Kenneth Bridges, ways and means chairman, announced the kickoff for the 223RD ST. SCHOOL PTA board members held their monthly meeting last Monday, March 2, in the school auditorium. Plans for the annual open house, to be held March 17 at 6:30 p. m., were made at this meeting. Marie Lorenz, principal, gave a report on the four new teachers and the new vice-principal.

The four new teachers are Charleen Jackson, graduate of Long Beach State College; Patricia Weber, also from Long Beach State College; Joan Womack from Westmont College, Santa Barbara, and Francine Reese from Long Beach State. The new principal, Lee Weinberg, holds bachelor and master's degrees from USC.

Mrs. Carl Larson gave a report about the PTA-sponsored "Koffee Klatch," held last Thursday, March 2, at Normandie Park. Bunco was played by the PTA members and their friends. Hostesses for the very successful neighborhood get-together were ways and means chairmen Mmes. Carl Larsen, Robert Dossey and Albert Owens.

cookie drive will be March 9. A $100 check received approval of the board, to be given to Fleming Junior High for the purchase of picture frames.

TASTE GOOD?—Cooks Don Ritter and Frank Conaty sample the corned beef and cabbage to see if the seasoning is just right for diners on March 19 at the annual St. Patrick's Day dinner sponsored by the Holy Name Society at St. Catherine Labouré Church, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd. Dinner will be served from 1 until 7:30 p.m. and the public is invited.
