Board Meets

Board of the Garden Valley Association for Mentally Retarded children will convene at 8 p.m. in the Community Center, 1651 W. 162nd St., on March 20.

Stanley LeBon, president of the board, said films showing the activities of the boys and girls at the school will be the highlight of the meeting. Parents and friends are invited to attend the meeting.

SEAT BELTS

The American Medical Association News reports on a New York State study showing that injuries and deaths were 60 per cent lower in 400 accidents involving people using seat belts than in 400 similar accidents where seat belts were not used. And the U.S. Forest Service says that seat belts have saved at least 100 of its employees from death or serious injury.

Midway Manor Homes Are Spacious

Spacious ranch style living in the California way, is a speciality of Grant Quality Homes whose agent in Torrance is I. E. Rowland.

Plenty of space to live in has always been a tradition of the West and Midway Manor, homes, with their 1300 plus square feet of floor space meet this requirement.

Midway Manor is located just one block from a large shopping center; three blocks from parochial and public school.

To tour these homes drive to one block east of Main St. on Carson Ave. and turn north just 300 feet on Dolores Ave.

All of these beautiful ranch style homes have three bedrooms plus family room and two baths. Rooms are airy and spacious, and there are extra-large garages, too.

Other features include raised panel cabinets, aluminum sliding windows, tile drainboards and marbelized pullmans, colored bathroom fixtures. Kitchens are equipped with O'Keefe & Merritt built-in gas ranges. Fireplaces and carpeting are optional.

Tahitian Tour Planned by Polynesian

A 17-day bachelor tour to Tahiti is being presented by The Polynesian restaurant in Torrance on July 7.

Departing via Pan American jet for Honolulu, from where the party will fly to Papeete via South Pacific Airlines, the tour will be personally conducted by Pete Reitz. The owner-manager of the tropical restaurant, making his fourth trip to Tahiti, has completed arrangements for the most memorable trip for those joining the group.

Flight space is limited and reservations should be made early as possible at The Polynesian, where colorful tour folders are available, to assure travel and all other island accommodations.

Sleep-E-Z Opens New Local Store

Grand Opening of Sleep-E-Z Mattress Co., 18302 Hawthorne Blvd., last Sunday was attended by civic officials of Torrance. Jules Blatt, president of Sleep-E-Z attended the opening.

Because of the outstanding growth of Torrance, Sleep-E-Z Mattress Co. chose this location to locate. In spite of the national talk of recession Torrance has maintained the very highest of progress standards. Sleep-E-Z wants to stay with a winner such as Torrance where "progress" is the byword," stated a spokesman for the Sleep-E-Z company.

Sleep-E-Z has five other locations, but we are looking to the Torrance store as the new way to make your sleep worthwhile, Robert Dutsch, Sleep-E-Z executive, said.
