

Rabbi Kleinman Set As Temple Speaker

Temple Menorah of Redondo Beach will hold a general membership meeting at the temple building, 112 N. Catalina Ave., on Wednesday, March 22, at 8 p.m.

RABBI KLEINMAN ... guest speaker

Refreshments and a social hour will follow the meeting.

Sermon Topic Is "Our Cross"

"Our Cross" will be the sermon topic at the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena, 1957 Redondo Beach Blvd., at the 11 a.m. worship service.

Church school is held every Sunday at 9:30 a.m. in the new buildings. The Junior High and Junior Departments are conducting extended sessions each Sunday evening.

Membership classes meet each week; the young people meeting at 10 on Saturday mornings and the adults meeting at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday.

'Victorious Crisis' Topic for Baptists

The Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita has just concluded the best attended Revival in the history of the church.

The Pastor, Robert A. Wells will speak at the 8:30 and 10:50 services. The message will be another in the series on "The Great Events In The Life of Christ." This message will be "The Victorious Crisis." "No one event in the earthy life of Christ is more important than his decisive decision at Caesarea Philippi. It was here that Jesus established the fact that he was to be the "suffering servant."

From here on his ministry pointed to the cross," Mr. Wells stated.

CITATION AWARDED

A citation for design of Torrance's proposed West High School has been awarded Architect Roy Donley and the American Assn. of School Administrators, according to word received by the Board of Education.

FELLOWSHIP DINERS—Members of the Redondo-Torrance Church of Religious Science met at the Thunderbird Hotel Starlight Room to launch their building fund canvass campaign with a fellowship dinner.

his wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rhodes at the head table. Mrs. Rhodes, better known as eJan Rhodes, is the church organist. Dinner was held last Sunday evening with more than 350 persons attending.

Kick-Off Dinner Held To Aid Building Fund

Three hundred fifty members and friends of the Redondo-Torrance Church of Religious Science last Sunday attended a "kick-off" dinner at the Thunderbird Restaurant for the purpose of sharing fellowship and enthusiasm for the upcoming building fund canvass.

Tables were set for ten persons, each presided over by one of the following hostesses: Mesdames Jack Bennett (Hostess chairman), Don Arnett, Hesel Bennett, Ted Corazza, Kittie Coughtry, Ray Deffenbaugh, Howard Evans, John Cault, Lee Geier, Paul Glazier, Lona Johnson, Ralph Johnson, William Lyton, Charles Martz, Ted Melsheimer, Doyace Miller, Jane Reed, Richard Robbins, Harold Tinkham, and Miss Helen Miller.

INVOCATION Mrs. Ramona Johnson gave the invocation.

After dinner Miss Frances Johnson, who has been a member since its inception twelve years ago, gave a brief history of the church. She reviewed the usual financial struggle by a handful of original members, their co-operative manual labor in their rented quarters in the Redondo Beach Masonic Temple, and the steady growth of the membership to its present three hundred.

Members of the board of Trustees were introduced. They included Don Arnett, Albert I. Lukes, Neal Q. Vocke, Earl D. Barnum, Leslie Fuller, Doyace L. Miller, Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Clifford Reid and Hesel Bennet. Mrs. Don Arnett serves as recording secretary.

PROGRESS REPORT

Doyace L. Miller, building chairman, gave a report on the progress of the new church now under construction at Knob Hill and Prospect Avenues, Redondo Beach. Leslie Fuller, church treasurer, gave a financial report, and explained the necessity of the individual's planned giving of service and money to one's church.

Neal Q. Vocke, general chairman of the canvass organization, then introduced the four division heads, who are Don Arnett, Hesel Bennett, Ted Corazza and Paul Glazier.

Dr. Earl D. Barnum, minister, was the last speaker. He thanked those present for attending, and expressed pleasure over the fine spirit which was evident.

Dance Slated by North Torrance Little League

Saturday, March 18 at 9:30 p.m. at the Elks Hall in Gardena, the North Torrance Little League will hold its first dance.

Mrs. John Motta, ways and means chairman, stated that donation tickets will be available at the door. Proceeds will go toward the purchasing of new equipment for the boys.

The Serenaders will play dance music until 1:30 a.m. Door prizes will be given. Members and friends are welcome said Mrs. Lester, president of the Women's Auxiliary and Lew Baker, president of the North Torrance Little League.

IGNORANCE Things are difficult or impossible only in relation to our ignorance

DOGS Dogs never give advice or borrow money—and are still "man's best friend."

LIFE Life is a shallow stream from which we stoop to drink—and, if we observe closely enough, we can see how quickly it passes any given spot, never to return.
