TROOP 246

Brownie Troop 2461 in the Shoestring area has been very active and busy in the past month.

This troop is sponsored by the 223rd St. School PTA and is under the leadership of Mrs. Kenneth Marshall.

Last month at the school's regular PTA meeting they led the Pledge of Allgiance to the Flag of the United States.

Also this month the girls and some of the mothers went to Peck's Park for a nature hunt and study.

Cookie sale was a great success.

At the present time these young girls are busy making Easter baskets.

Recently the girls enjoyed a lovely day at Knott's Berry Farm. The mothers club of the troop bought their lunches in the main dining room and everyone who went expressed that they all wished to return again.

Dynamic Living Group Convenes

Dynamic Living group will meet this evening at the Torrance YWCA, Carson St. and Del Amo Blvd. at 8 p.m. with Merritt Myers, president, presiding.

The Rev. James Pottenger, a noted speaker on Religious Science, will begin a series of lectures that will continue until the end of May.

According to a spokesman from the group, the public is invited to attend the meetings.

FADED BULBS

Most gardeners know that top growth of faded bulbs should not be cut back until it dries off, but many of them don't know what to do about it.
