

Torrance Women Are Fashion-Wise

'Patterns in Profile' Fashion Show Slated by Mothers' Club April 8

"Patterns in Profile"—featuring a collection of coordinated wonder fabrics of stripes, checks and solids fashioned into dresses, suits, coats, sportswear and complete ensembles by "do it yourself dressmakers" of the Nativity Mothers Club will play an important role Saturday afternoon, April 8. Members will model their original fashions.

The show and luncheon under the directions of Mmes. Harry Kale and John Tweedy will take place at the Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave. at 1 p.m., preceded by a social hour at the Nativity Parish Hall, Cota Ave.

Tables will be decorated with miniature trees trimmed with cotton print butterflies and sewing notions to carry out the "Patterns in Profile" theme, with an added touch of spring flowers.

Commentator, Irene Miles, will add to the show by wearing a self-fashioned ensemble.

Various committee chairmen include: Mrs. Edward Winkelbauer, Reservations; Mrs. Al Baker, table decorations; Mrs. James Fornelli, social hour; Mrs. Larry Moeder, publicity.

Models for the occasion will be Kathleen and Terry Redding, Candis and Judy Thomassin, Georgia Kale, Jean Glaesges, Susan Knooz, Mary Bruce and Donette

Gray; Mmes. Robert Dobson, Robert Moffitt, Frank Krisufek, Robert Knooz, James McClain, William Hardesty, John Doran, Robert Klaesges, John Redding, Joseph Thomassin, Harry Kale, Frank Quinn, Raymond Hart, and Larry Moeder.

For reservations contact Mmes. John Tweedy or Mrs. Edward Winkelbauer.

Women

Lavina Nugen, Women's Editor ★ Telephone DA 5-1515

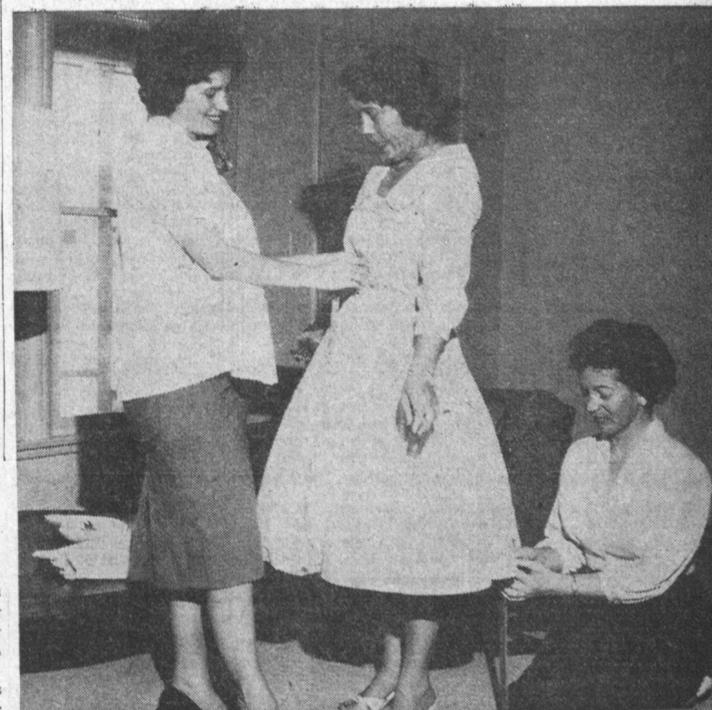

Spool an' Bobbin Show Is A Fashion Fantasy

"Fashion Fantasy" will be the theme of the annual Spool and Bobbin Fashion Show to be given by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Marina District, CFWC, announced Mrs. Elgin Logsdon, chairman. It will be held at the club house, 1422 Engracia Ave., April 26 at 8 p.m.

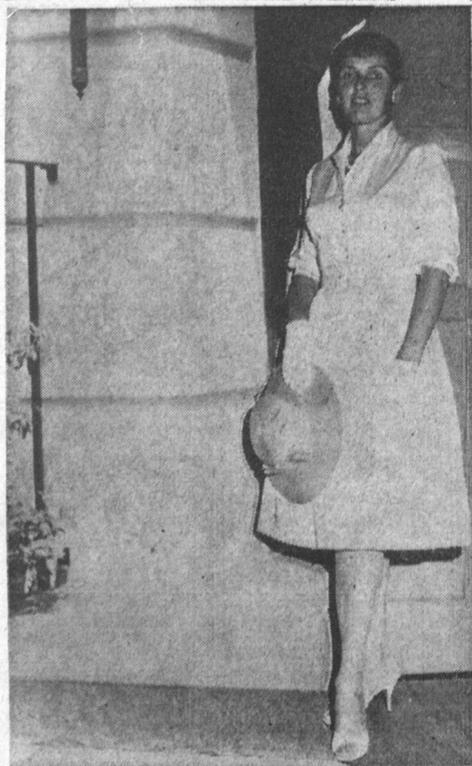

This annual affair, which displays the sewing ability of the Juniors, has proved so popular in past years it will be repeated. All the garments are made and modeled by members and include every variety of clothing from sleep wear to cocktail dresses.

Since the fashion emphasis this year is on color, the decor will be May baskets rich in all the hues of the rainbow.

Members of the Senior Woman's Club will be honored guests for the evening.

COLOR FANTASY—With emphasis on color, members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club will have fashion fantasy for their Spool and Bobbin fashion show. Adjusting hems and checking fashion accents are (left to right) Mmes. T. J. Burchfield, Edward Felkel and Ronald Forestal, who will model their own fashions. Set for 8 p.m., April 26, the show will be at the Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave.

DAY IN TOWN—Mrs. Joseph Thomassin, member of Nativity Mothers Club, models a shirtmaker dress of lilac pima cotton which she made for the "Patterns in Profile" fashion show and luncheon planned for April 8 by the Mothers Club. Whether she has a day in town planned or a club meeting, Mrs. Thomassin is very smartly dressed in this creation.

ANTIQUÉ ROSE—Mrs. Harry Kale is ready for a festive evening in a lovely antique rose Chantilly lace over rose taffeta after five dress. Mrs. Kale made the dress for the fashion show and luncheon sponsored by the Nativity Mothers Club.

TWO PIECE SUIT—Mrs. Frank Kristufek models a cotton tweed black and white with a touch of red two piece suit. Made with black military braid trimming the chanel jacket, the suit is just right for business or a pleasure outing. All of the fashions in the Patterns in Profile show were made by the models.

Spaghetti Dinner Set by Democrats

At 7 p.m., April 8 at the Higgins Brickyard Patio, 2217 W. 174th St., Torrance, a delicious dinner will be held for David K. Lyman, candidate for the Board of Education.

Tickets are $1 donation and reservations may be made by calling DA 4-4840. Many valuable prizes including a three day holiday at the Las Vegas Hacienda Hotel will be given.

B'nai B'rith Slates Gala Social Affair

Mrs. Ralph Miller and Mrs. Herbert Stearns, cochairmen of the Hollypark B'nai B'rith Women annual ad-book affair, announce that it will be held Sunday evening April 16 at the Crescendo on the Sunset Strip. The evening will begin with an installation of new officers at 6:15 p.m. At 7:30 p.m. a prime rib dinner will be served. Don Rickles and Frances Faye will provide the entertainment. Tickets for the affair are $15 a couple.

Those interested in obtaining tickets are asked to contact Mrs. Herbert Stearns at FA 1-5398.

This affair is the culmination of month's work by the women of the chapter in selling ads to the local merchants of Gardena, Torrance, Inglewood and the South Bay area. These advertisements have been beautifully bound in a souvenir book which will be distributed to each person attending the dinner-dance.

Executive Board Named for Demo Women's Society

Women's Democratic Society, Torrance Democrats, Inc., met recently in the home of Martha Armstrong, chairman. One of many topics discussed was monthly coffee meetings to keep interested Democratic women informed on local and state politics, and various social activities are in the planning stage.

Mrs. Armstrong also named her executive board to be: Eleanor Hill, co-chairman; Helen Brandt, treasurer; Mae Coppedge, secretary; Kay King, telephoning; Claire Smith, ways and means; Orah Mae Miller, decorations; and Helen Stout, refreshments.

Memberships for Women's Democratic Society, TDI, are being accepted. Please contact Kay King, membership chairman, FR 1-3365, for information.

LAST MINUTE DETAILS—Kay King and Sharon Baker put the finishing touches on last minute details for the Democrats Spaghetti dinner Saturday, April 8 at Higgins Brick Yard. Dinner starts at 7 p.m.

Sorority Members Sponsor Art Show

Epsilon Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary leadership society for women educators, is presenting a significant collection of paintings and other art forms at the Wilshire Federal Savings and Loan Association of Los Angeles 3500 Wilshire — at Normandie, from Monday, April 3rd through Saturday, April 15, between the hours of 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Thursdays; 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Fridays; and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays.

The purpose of this collectors show of fine, moderately priced paintings is to stimulate educators, especially those beginning their careers, to start a collection of fine painting which will be a source of pleasure and satisfaction to them and their families throughout their lifetime.

Paintings will be displayed in an environment suggesting the home. There will be some small sculptures, a little glass, some ceramics, a few hand-woven textiles and a few pieces of furniture.

Some of the distinguished artists who are contributing to the exhibit are Millard Sheets, Phil Dike, Rex Brandt, Joan Irving, Dextra Frankel, Laura Anderson, Helen Watson, Mrs. Albert Stewart, Robert E. Wood, George Post, Roger Kuntz, Paul Darrow, Richard Haines and Glen Lukens.

The paintings will range in price from $50 to $500 with special discounts to educators.

The public is cordially invited.

For further information contact Mrs. Helen Zillgitt, chairman 5318 Hillcrest Drive, Los Angeles 43. Telephone is AX 1-2668. Mrs. Zillgitt is principal of Cahuenga

Miss Carolyn DeVore Is Mrs. John H. Rogers Now

At 2 p.m. March 25 at the Harbor Heights Baptist Church in San Pedro, Miss Carolyn Sue DeVore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred DeVore, 22306 Ladeena Ave., Torrance, became the bride of Johnny H. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers of Sacramento, California, are parents of the bridegroom.

For her wedding, the bride chose a Vergie original gown of white satin fashioned with scoop neckline and fitted bodice accented with scalloped lace. A crown of seed pearls with drop pearls secured her fingertip veil.

When escorted to the altar by her father, Miss DeVore carried a cascade of white rosebuds and sweetpeas.

Miss Brenda Rogers, honor attendant, wore a soft yellow chiffon street length dress fashioned with a large picture collar. Atop her head she wore a yellow rosebud band with a tiny veil. Miss Rogers, a sister of the groom, carried a cascade of yellow rosebuds and lavender sweetpeas.

Bridesmaids were Misses Jeannie Cooper and Phyllis McLain. The young ladies wore dresses of lavender chiffon with scoop necklines and full street length skirts. Flat lavender bows with veils were their headpieces. They carried cascades of yellow and lavender sweetpeas.

Brother of the bride, Glenn A. DeVore was best man. Evans, cousins of the bridegroom.

The Reverend James Wagner officiated at the marriage ceremony. Mrs. Ester Howe

MRS. JOHN H. ROGERS ... formerly Carolyn Sue DeVore Photo by Village Camera Shop

sang, "I'll Be Loving You Always" and the "Lord's Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. DeVore wore a lavender jacket dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Rogers was attired in a blue and white print dress with white accessories. White orchid corsages were their flowers. At the reception following the ceremony, Miss Paula Angelos registered the guests and Miss Madeline Dupuis was in charge of the gifts.

The new Mrs. Rogers is a senior at South High School. Her groom is a graduate of North High School.

LEAGUE OF VOTERS—New officers for the League of Women Voters include (left to right) Mmes. Yoshimero Shibuya, first vice president; Harry Morgan, president; and Lloyd Money, director. The ladies are actively interested in governmental affairs—local, state and national. Other officers are Mmes. Victor White, second vice president; George Welch, secretary; Walter Peterson and Glenn Drown, directors. Mmes. Ralph Wuerker, Richard Blakely and Martin Pritzkat are members of the nominating committee.