

Fashion Shows . . Socials . . Homes Tour Planned

Women

Lavina Nugen . . . Women's Editor

★ TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Betty Kendall Installed as Royal Matron of Order of Amaranth

Betty Kendall was installed as royal matron of the Lomita Court, Order of Amaranth at the 37th installation held Thursday evening at the Torrance Masonic Temple. Installed with her were Albert Bayes, royal patron; Isabel Galera, associate matron; Joseph Galera, associate patron; Anna Long, treasurer; Lois Babcock, secretary; Mildred Mittan, conductress; Rosalie Bayes, associate conductress; Audrey Bacon, 3-year Trustee.

Also Barbara Stevens, marshal in the east; Marguerite Morgan, marshal in the west with Marie Ware as stand-in; Mable Moore, standard bearer; Mona Brizendine, prelate; Garet Satterfield, musician with Gladys Mothersell as stand-in; Gertrude Kastrup, truth; Ada Anderson, faith; Goldie Schwab, Wisdom; Mary volent, charity; Gerald Mittan, historian; Edward Morgan, warder; Fred Bacon, sentinel.

Those taking part in the coronation ceremony were Gladys Mothersell, crowning matron; Albert Bayes, honored marshal; Mabel Moore, standard bearer; Barbara Stevens, marshal in the east; Marguerite Morgan, marshal in the west; Rosalie Bayes, crown bearer; Fred Bacon, sword bearer; 12 royal patrons from other Courts served as honor guards.

Over 200 members and guests were welcomed by Eugene Meyer, master of ceremonies, Marguerite Morgan, royal matron and Edward Morgan, royal patron were escorted to the throne followed by the installing officers who were Clyde Satterfield, patron; Garnet Satterfield, musician; Lois Babcock, secretary; Helen Wilson, marshal; Edward Morgan, aid; Mattie Meyer, Bible bearer; Sally Weber, wreath bearer; Hallie Parbois, installing prelate.

The officers carried golden stieriofome crowns and red roses. Susan MacDougall, soloist, sang "Dream."

For Marguerite Morgan, Susan sang "Our Best To You," after she had been uncrowned by Helen Wilson, matron; Edna Mullen, marshal in the east; Anna Long, marshal in the west; Mattie Meyer, standard bearer; Dorothy Davis, crown bearer.

Refreshments were served in the banquet room by Anna Long and her committee. Elaborately dressed dolls with parasols and red roses, made up the table decoration.

Lambda Chapter Receives Award

Mrs. Fran Nichols, president of Xi Zeta Lambda Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, accepted the South Bay Area Council achievement award for her chapter at the annual Founder's Day banquet held at the Hacienda Hotel, San Pedro on April 29.

Xi Zeta Lambda was also honored as the Chapter Historian who is Mrs. Eric Swanson, accepted the South Bay Area Council scrapbook award for the pictorial record of the Chapter's achievement.

Mrs. Wm. Schroeder of Xi Zeta Lambda Chapter was presented a trophy in recognition of her selection as Girl of the Year of her chapter.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS

Plant cushion Chrysanthemums in a sunny spot for summer-long bloom.

MRS. ROBERT HENRY DREYER

nee Bonnie Dee Smith

Photo by Seeman

Smith-Dreyer Vows Recited

At the First Brethren Church in Long Beach, Miss Bonnie Dee Smith pledged her vows to Robert Henry Dreyer in a candlelit service.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin B. Smith, 26455 Leesdale, Harbor City, are the parents of the bride. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. R. Johanson, 26234 Eshelman, Lomita.

Dr. Charles Mayes officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an Alfred Angelo original of Chantilly lace and tulle with a fitted bodice of pleated tulle adorned with iridescent sequins and baby pearls. The floor length skirt of her gown was caught in the front with a row of roses. Accenting the back of the gown were rows of ruffles of lace and tulle flowing into a chapel-length train. A tiara of iridescent stones and baby pearls held her shoulder-length veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis encircling a white orchid.

Pastel taffeta gowns with white embossed nylon overskirts were worn by the bridal attendants which included Betty Bailey, Mary Jean Cook, Mildred Dreyer, and Sharon Smith. They carried matching carnation nosegays.

Harold Dreyer served as best man. Ushers were Don Carter, Larry Olson and Keith Jones.

Ringbearer was Dwane Carter and Peggy Jans was flower girl.

Mrs. Smith wore a floral sheath fashioned with an overskirt. Mrs. Johanson chose a pink lace dress. Each one wore an orchid corsage.

At the reception which was held in the church, the newlyweds cut a tiered cake before leaving on a northern California honeymoon.

Grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Elinore, California and C. Harry Smith, brother of the bride, of Wheaton, Illinois attended the ceremony.

Graduates of Narbonne High School, the couple will be at home in Lomita.

MEETING PLANS—Making plans for the May Hamilton PTA meeting are (left to right) Mmes. W. H. Bayliff, president; A. J. Stilwell, program chairman; Jack Cleveland, incoming president; Myron Spaulding, installing officer; and Mr. Dale Wickstrom, principal of Hamilton School. In addition to the scheduled installation, historian and book chairmen will be featured. Meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. May 18, in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Lisman Is New Auxiliary President

Mrs. Van B. Lisman, young mother of four, will be installed as the president of the Bay Harbor Osteopathic Hospital Guild at a dinner meeting.

Scheduled for May 25 at the Elks Club in Redondo, Frank Kredel, hospital administrator, will be the installing officer.

Mrs. Lisman, who replaces Mrs. Charles Crawford, has been active with the group since its second meeting in 1957. She served as president-elect for the past year and recruited volunteers for work in the Guild-operated gift shop.

Other officers who will be serving with Mrs. Lisman are Mmes. Henry Kelly, president-elect; Richard Rozendal, first vice president; M. L. Shepard, second vice president; Charles Crawford, third vice president; Jack Hurley, treasurer; Charles Sell, recording secretary; and L. C. Moody, corresponding secretary.

The recently met pledge of $5,000 to the hospital for equipment was followed by another pledge for the same amount. The big fund raising event of the new year will be the annual barbeque at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rados.

MRS. VAN B. LISMAN
President-Elect

VOLUNTEER LEADERS — New officers for the Volunteers, Harbor General Hospital were installed at the Hawaiian Luau held one afternoon last week at the Jump 'N Jack. Officers to be installed are (left to right, standing) Mmes. Charles Pfeffer, treasurer; Ewert E. Allen, first vice president; and E. Robert Hoppe, second vice president. Sitting are (left to right) Mmes. Rollin Ring, president, and Richard J. Berry, recording secretary.

FUTURE DESIGNERS—Torrance High School PTA meeting, at 7:30 p.m., May 19, will have the theme "Focus on Future Designers." Students from the garments clothing construction class will model their own creations. Among them will be (left to right) Barbara Campbell, JoAnn Perry, Judi Meadows and Mario Redhead. Show will be narrated by student Jan Plaz. Miss Delphine Hedtke, home economics department chairman, is faculty chairman for the event. Mrs. Paul Roberts, PTA president, announced installation of officers and selections from the Girls' Glee Club will conclude the evening's program.

HOME TOUR—Enjoying the beauty of one of the distinctive residences to be shown on the 12th annual Palos Verdes Homes Tour Saturday, May 6 and Sunday, May 7, are (left to right) Mrs. Fred Brand, Miss Marilyn Moore, Mrs. Frank Golden, and the Rev. Robert Tourigny, rector of St. Francis Episcopal Church which sponsors the affair. Mrs. Fred Klose, standing in back of the Rev. Tourigny, is the owner of the colonial Williamsburg style home which they are visiting. Antique furnishings which have been collected for a long period and are the hobby of Mrs. Klose, give an atmosphere of slower pace of the charming period.