PTA News

223RD STREET PTA—A very interesting program was presented by Mrs. Eddie Grijalva, program chairman, at the last meeting of 223 Street School PTA meeting, Tuesday, April 11. Lower grade teachers Mmes. Davis, Potter, and Bebra presented a panel from each of their classrooms showing parents how manuscript and cursive writing is taught from kindergarten through third grade. Mrs. Smith, music teacher, presented a group of children in a type of classroom music lesson.

Mothers of third grade children served as hostesses for the afternoon, and books were given as awards to Miss Trainfelder and Mrs. Coffey for the best classroom representation by parents. Plans were made to send Mrs. James Nash, president-elect, to the state PTA convention in Los Angeles in May. Several new members were welcomed by Mrs. R. C. Heitmeyer, president, who announced that the June PTA association meeting will be held on June 9 at 7:30 p.m. A musical program will be presented at this meeting by Mrs. Smith and her music class.

Approximately 150 parents and children attended the safety demonstration held last Friday, April 15, under the direction of 223 Street School faculty and the Los Angeles County Sheriff's department. —Mrs. T. Devine
