WHICHAWAY?—That seems to be Slim Pickens' dilemma as he starts out for 1961 Sheriff's Rodeo. The way Slim is heading maybe it's a good thing he's getting underway early. Pickens and three other zany cowboy jesters will entertain rodeo fans with hilarious shenanigans Saturday night, June 24, in the Coliseum.

Breakfast Affair Slated by Dog Club

Southwest Obedience Club, a non-profit organization, will have a big week starting May 13; Saturday afternoon, with the opening of its third new beginners class of the year. Progressing on into Mother's Day, Sunday, May 14, members will hold a pancake breakfast, combined with a practice show. Then, the following Tuesday, May 16, will be the start of the new eve-

WHEN DO WE EAT?—Friday, a Great Dane owned by Dan Fairchild, 14504 Firmons, Lawndale, makes like "Aunt Jamima" in preparation for the breakfast practice match sponsored by the Southwest Obedience Club, and to be held Sunday morning, May 14, at the Rosecrans Playground, Gardena.
