Summer Softball Signups Sought

Sign-ups are being conducted at all Torrance parks for boys' softball leagues that will vie this summer.

Youngsters from the third through the eighth grade and parents interested in coaching are urged to register at any Torrance Park or at Torrance Recreation Department headquarters, 1511 Cravens Ave., through May 27.

Three leagues will be formed according to school grades, according to Bob Lundquist, Recreation Supervisor, who is in charge of the program.

Members of championship teams will be given membership in the "Flying T Champions Club," which will entitle them to participate in special activities at various times during the year free of charge.
