Family Day Proves A Happy Carefree Event

An estimated 1800 people participated in a day-long program of events at the Torrance Park last Sunday, marking the second observance of the Nativity church's "Family Day," during a picnic presented by the parish organizations.

William Fredericks and Mrs. Donald Sanders were co-chairmen of a picnic committee consisting of representatives from the parish's Holy Name Society, Mother's Club, Altar and Rosary Society, CHI-RHO club and other church groups.

A "blue-ribbon" panel of judges selected winners in an unusual "baby contest" opening the day's program of events. Winning first prizes in the various classes of the contest were Mary Ann Trujillo (most curls), Steven Firth (most bald), David Hart (most chubby), Scott Casavan (best smile), Kathleen Neary (most freckles), and Mark Bryant (shy). Harry Klissner (Los Angeles Times), James Cole (Lomita News), and Lavina Nugen (Torrance Press) were the contest judges.

The distribution of thousands of hot dogs, ice cream cups, and soft drinks plus the preparation of the day's program was under the direction of the following committee chairmen: Mesdames Harold Foley and Richard Thompson, registration; Mrs. Harley Berning and Mr. Norris Carstenson, games; Mrs. Milton Bruce, hot dogs; Robert Klaesges, soft drinks; Mrs. Arthur Ley, ice cream; Mrs. Fred Voeste, coffee; Ray Negrate, special program; Joseph Platt, publicity; Mrs. M. R. Erickson, treasurer; Joseph Basile, park; and C. Bowen, clean-up. Mrs. Powers and Jack Redding were the picnic "clowns."

Members of the various committees were Mesdames Fred Guzman, Eugene McGovern, Carroll Thornton, John Wilson, James Byrne, Earl Callahan, Joseph Platt, Ames Cassidy, M. E. Momo, Alfred Yurlewicz, Harvey Day, Robert Wilson, Charles Butterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bouldreaux, Frank Zboyan, Berry, Witz, Webb Phelps, and Messrs Peter O'Brian, Donald Sanders, William Brase, Andrew Visco, Eugene Kirsteins and Ames Maher.
