

CLOSE-UP—"The Troubled Land," documentary film on Brazil, will be seen Tuesday at 10 p.m. on ABC-TV, Channel 7.

KILEY TO STAR

A court fight over the custody of a child leads to an accusation of murder in "Trial Without Jury," co-starring Richard Kiley and Mary Fickett, on the U. S. Steel Hour. Written by Harold Gast, the "live" drama will be seen Wednesday, June 14, PDT, via channel 2.

Mark Davis (Kiley), a writer, lost his wife a year ago, when she died as a result of a fall down a flight of stairs. After the publication of his first big success, a novel depicting all the sins of modern society, his late wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pollard, sue for custody of his seven-year-old daughter. His lawyer Ellen Reed (Miss Fickett), with whom he is in love, is convinced that the Pollards have charged that Mark is an unfit father because they are shocked by his book. During a court recess, a woman, who, from time to time has taken care of the little girl, tells Ellen that she will not testify for Mark because she has been told by the Pollards that Mark actually killed his wife. Ellen, believing the charge preposterous, brings it up in court as proof of the Pollards' vindictiveness, and finds she has set in motion a hearing on the issue of murder.

Bruce Winnix will direct "Trial Without Jury." The Steel Hour is produced by The Theatre Guild, George Kondolf, executive producer.

DRAG RACERS

The regular Saturday night drag racing program resumed last night under the lights at Lions Drag Strip in Long Beach. Racing was interrupted for the Summer Drag Championships that were held at the strip last week.

PLAY OF THE WEEK—Alfred Ryder stars in "Four" by Tennessee Williams, four one-act plays by the famous playwright to be seen Thursday at 8 p.m. on KCOP, Channel 13.

Michner's Opera Spotlights By Channel 4

From the pen of James Michner, the man who brought the world the full scope of the South Pacific in such books as "Hawaii," and "Tales of the South Pacific," comes "Return to Paradise," starring Gary Cooper and Roberta Haynes on KHJ-TV's Million Dollar Movie starting the week of June 19.

"Return to Paradise" tells the poignant story of a man who lives on an island in the South Pacific and falls in love with a native girl. It clearly illustrates the problems and trials the lovers have coming from two different worlds.

It was made in 1953 and was originally made in color and will be telecast by Channel 9 in color.

The movie will have a showing each night, Monday through Saturday at 9 p.m., and have two afternoon showings.
