Local Lady Called 'Chef of Year'

Mrs. E. P. Yoklavich, 2266 236th St., was named "Chef of the Year" at St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church on Saturday evening, June 3, at a Gourmet Dinner sponsored by Sacred Heart Guild. A panel of three judges including Rev. John Hagerty, pastor, Mrs. Charles Lupin, Altar Society president, and William Delaney, Holy Name president, picked Mrs. Yoklavich's lasagne from nearly 80 entries prepared for the Gourmet Dinner held in the parish hall.

Three others chefs were also selected Best Chefs in their categories. Mrs. Lee Salisbury won with "Melon Surprise" salad; Mrs. J. Stanley Smith, potato bread; and Mrs. John View, strawberry meringue tart dessert. Each was awarded a silver serving dish suitably engraved. Mrs. Yoklavich was unable to be present for the dinner. Her Corning Ware prize and "Chef of the Year" crown were accepted for her by her neighbor, Mrs. Donald Coughlin.

Mrs. Ban Keeps Busy With CDA

Time for installation of new officers being at hand, these are busy days for Mrs. Richard Ban, who serves as district deputy to three neighboring Catholic Daughters of America courts. Although a past regent, Mrs. Ban is still an officer and takes an active part in Court St. Catherine.

Women Demo Society Meets

Women's Democratic Society, TDI, who recently had its initial membership tea at the home of Mrs. John Shidler (Rosemary De Camp) is now making plans to attend a tea for Governor Edmund G. Brown. Tea is being given by the Women's Division of the Democratic State Central Committee at the home of Mrs. Carmen H. Warschaw, chairman of the Women's Division, June 20 from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Stamp Club Meets

Torrance Stamp Club will hold its annual picnic Sunday, June 18, at 1 p.m. in the Torrance City Park.

Dave Shipman, social director of the club, has planned the Day's activities to please the families of stamp collectors by issuing a directive that the order of the day will be fun, games and a gala pot luck lunch, with all talk concerning stamps strictly forbidden.

South Bay Garden Club Plans Session

Prominent designer, lecturer and floral decorator Allen Miller, of Gardena will be the featured speaker at the business meeting of the South Bay Garden Club, Monday, June 12, in the Woman's Clubhouse, Broadway at Pearl, Redondo Beach, at 1:30 p.m.

Miller, for three years the award winning designer at the International Flower Show as well as floral designer at the Home Show, Pomona Fair and of the Las Floritas Headress Ball, will demonstrate flower arrangements to illustrate his lecture. Soon Mr. Miller will leave for Japan to teach as well as study Japanese floral arrangements for the next two years. This program is preliminary to the club workshop to begin June 15th in preparation for the next show in August.

As is usual at the first meeting of the month there will be a plant table, the proceeds from which goes into the Penny-Pines project.
