

Officers Installed by Education Association

President Willard G. Anderson and other new officers of the Torrance Education Assn. were officially installed at recent ceremonies held at the San Pedro Hacienda.

Installing officer for the Torrance teachers' organization was Paul Bjelland, California Teachers' Assn. representative. Other officers installed were:

James Armstrong, Torrance High, vice president; Geraldine Anderson, Madison, secretary; and Jerry Davidson, North High, treasurer. Also installed were five representatives to the California Teachers' Assn.—Albert Graftsky, North High; James McDonald, Riviera; Cecil Paschall, Madrona; Roy Rork, Arlington; and Gerald Ronan, Torrance High.

This will be Anderson's second term as head of the teacher organization, which co-sponsored the April 8 Good Teaching Conference.

Honors were paid to two retiring Torrance teachers at the installation—Mrs. Ethal Lewis, home teacher and Mrs. Katherine Grogan, Waltheria.

Club Features Stamp Auction

An auction of general foreign stamps will be the main feature of the Monday, June 26, meeting of the Torrance Stamp Club.

The auction will be held at 7:30 p.m. at Scott Park Community Building, 23410 Catskill Ave., Wilmington.

Guests and visitors will be invited to bid along with the members for the lot of their choice, representative for the organization announced.

PATIENCE

The only thing mother needs to save for a rainy day is patience.

Glamour Gift For Girl Graduate This Summer

A most exciting reward for promotion or graduation, is a $10 Entry Receipt to the 1961 Young Stylenmaker Contest sponsored by the Singer Sewing Machine Company. Each contest entrant is given an eight-lesson sewing course where in she makes herself a garment which must be completed by August 26. Prizes and Glamour galore are in store for the contest winners.

Climax of the contest is the crowning of three Queens of Sewing at a gala fashion show in New York City—the "Misses and Mrs." division, age 18 through 21, the "Teen" divisions for girls aged 14 through 17, and the "Tween" division for those aged 10 through 13.

As the judging proceeds, 108 lucky entrants will receive the newest models of Singer Sewing Machines. Their winning garments will be sent to New York for the next round of judging.

Then a fortunate 15 girls will be invited to come to New York with their mothers or a family-approved companion for an exciting, all-expense stay at one of New York's top hotels. After a whirlwind of theaters, sight-seeing and parties, the 15 girls will participate in a fashion show.

The grand-prize winner in each age group will be announced at this fashion show. In the "Tween Division $400 will be awarded all five winners.

The top winner will also enjoy a one-week vacation tour of historical points in the United States for herself and parents.

WINNERS

In the Teen Division, all five winners will receive $600. In addition, the top winner will receive the one-week vacation tour of historical points, for herself and her parents.

In the Misses and Mrs. Division, four winners will receive $800. The top winner will receive $1000, plus a trip that is the dream of every young girl—a summer jet trip to Paris for herself and one companion, for a tour of the top fashion houses and a preview of the fall fashion showings.
