

Gene Raymond Stars in U.S. Steel's Teleplay 'The Haven'

SHIRLEY BOOTH and Gene Raymond, portraying a husband and wife, face a crisis in their marriage, during rehearsals for "The Haven," to be presented on the U.S. Steel Hour, on Wednesday, June 28, at 10 p.m., via Channel 2.

Booth Shares Spotlight

The magical talent of Shirley Booth will illuminate "The Haven," a moving drama about a woman faced with a serious crisis in her marriage, on the U. S. Steel Hour, Wednesday, June 28, at 10 p.m., via channel 2. Gene Raymond will also appear in the teleplay, written by Tad Mosel, winner of the 1961 Pulitzer Prize for playwriting.

Miss Booth and Raymond will portray Eunice and Howard, a married couple who are parents of two children. Eunice is inclined to informality and a breezy manner, while her husband is fastidious and cultivated. The children and Eunice want to go to their summer house, called "The Haven," at vacation time, though Howard would like to sell the house and take a trip. When he fails to find a buyer, he reluctantly agrees to go to "The Haven," but, once there, becomes edgy and moody. At first, Eunice thinks it is her too-casual manner that is irritating him; however, a shattering discovery suddenly makes it clear that she faces a far graver situation in her marriage than she could have guessed.

Don Richardson will direct "The Haven." The Steel Hour is produced by The Theatre Guild, George Kondolf, executive producer.

13 to Re-show 'Simply Heavenly'

"Simply Heavenly" is the warm story of ordinary, hard-working Harlemites who spend their spare time at Paddy's bar, not as drunkards or bums but as a way to get away from their over-crowded apartments.

POPULAR ACTOR John Doucette (left) will offer his rules for success and tell the role self confidence has played in his achievements when he guests with Professor Richard Spurney on "Your Better Self" Wednesday, July 5, 3:30 p.m. on KTTV, Channel Eleven.
