

Court Adopts Subscriptions At First Business Meeting

The first meeting of Mrs. Wesley Muzik, newly installed Grand Regent of Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Catholic Daughters of America, was held in the Knights of Columbus Hall on June 22 at which time the usual yearly subscriptions were adopted.

These include copies of the Catholic Digest to all local libraries and contributions to Teresita Pines and Trinity Missions. The Court awarded a scholarship for a worthy student to Bishop Montgomery High School as well as a suitable donation to Teresita Pines' annual sponsors drive.

Mrs. Richard Wurm and Mrs. Paul Hogan, co-chairmen of the standing rules, presented tentative changes in the court's rules as well as resolutions to be considered at the next meeting.

SPONSORS EVENT

Once again, the Catholic Daughters of America of this Archdiocese will sponsor the Solemn High Mass at St. Vaziana's Cathedral, 2nd and Main Sts., Los Angeles, July 4.

The Mass is sponsored by the Past Grand Regent's Club of Los Angeles. This is the only time officers may wear their robes outside their courts.

The Junior Court of Our Lady of Victory along with other Junior Courts will comprise the color guard. This is the eighth year for this event. Approximately 1500 members are expected to attend.

RESERVATIONS

Reservations are being taken for a breakfast at the Los Angeles Athletic Club following. This Mass is inspired by the organization's motive of "Love of Country through Love of God."

Members attending from the senior court will be Mmes. Wesley Muzik, Laura Dupont, Norman Dupont, David Crockett, Anne Stora, Ronald Metro, Marie West, Sy Durham, Carmel Clune, Teresa Fajen, Ernest Tarrin, Clarence Connelly, Paul Hogan and Richard Wurm.

Those attending from the Junior Court will be Mises

IN CHARGE

Mrs. Fred Tamble was in charge of the social program for the business meeting and refreshments were served by Mmes. David Crockett and Clarence Connelly, who were assisted by their committee.

Mrs. Muzik announced the next business meeting will be in the Knights of Columbus Hall July 13 at 8 p.m. and the Board of Directors Meeting will be July 6 at Mrs. Anne Stora's home.

Siamese Art Displayed

Preparations went into high gear yesterday (Monday, June 26) at the Los Angeles County Museum for the "Arts of Thailand" exhibition which opens Wednesday, July 12.

Taken carefully from their cases were such national art treasures as gold crowns, studded with precious stones, and other jewelry; gold and silver objects from the famed Ayudha treasurers; sculpture ranging from life sized religious figures to small devotional objects; ceramics; shadow puppets, marionettes and dramatic masks. There was a total of 300 pieces.

Representing 1400 years of Thai art—from the 6th to the early 20th century—the exhibition will be displayed in special cases will preside.

All courts of the Los Angeles Archdiocese have been invited to participate and the Past Grand Regents Club of Southern California will be hostesses, Miss Margaret Link said.

Mrs. James E. Dolan, past CDA state chaplain, will celebrate the Mass, to be sung by the San Gabriel Mission Choir. Father Lawrence E. Donnelly, chaplain of Court St. Cecilia, will deliver the sermon.

Preceding the Mass, the flag-bearing procession will march from the courtyard into the cathedral. The flags will be blessed immediately after Mass and will be prominently displayed in the home of each CDA member.

Summer Program Slated by Group

Program plans were set in motion June 20, when a PTA meeting was held at 223rd St. School.

Mrs. Edward Grijalva, program chairman and the committee selected "Guiding Today's Youth" as the theme for the year 1961-62.

Topics for each month were chosen and the general format of the program was discussed and prepared to be submitted to council for approval.

Serving on the committee were Mmes. Ralph Robertson, president-elect; Edward Grijalva, vice president; James Horn, hospitality chairman; and Leonard Pott, parent-education chairman.

John Kocsis and Carl Laussen will serve as youth activities and recreation chairmen; John Bankard, parliamentarian; Marie Lorenz, school principal; and Lee Weinberg, auditor and school vice principal.

Business Women Give $200 Grant

Winner of the Waleria Business Women's Club's scholarship for 1961 was Elena Whittington of South High in Torrance.

The $200 award was presented to Miss Whittington at the Annual Awards Assembly at South High June 13. Mrs. Loring Bigelow of Waleria made the presentation.

This award is given each year to an outstanding girl graduating from South High School who is seriously interested in furthering her education by attending a certified college or junior college and who has shown by her scholarship record that she is capable of carrying out a college program.

Miss Whittington was class representative during her freshman year. During her sophomore year, she was treasurer of the Latin Club, JUNIOR YEAR

Her junior year found her vice president of the Latin Club and treasurer of the Girl's Athletic Association. As a senior she was president of the Service Club, Order of Athena; and president of the Latin Club.

Outside school activities included Girl Scouts, Job's Daughters, and Candy-stripers—the Harbor General Hospital organization for teenage volunteers.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Miss Whittington is a life member in the California Scholarship Federation, having obtained membership five out of six semesters. She enjoys outdoor sports, reading, and stamp collecting.

The scholarship will be used towards Elena's plans to become a dental hygienist. She will attend either the University of Southern California, or the University of California at Los Angeles.

Dr. Eleanor Thill is chairman of the scholarship committee for the Waleria Business Women's Club. Serving with her are Mmes. Loring Bigelow and Robert Waegner, president.

Colorful Wall

KMPC's disc jockey Ira Cook offers a new idea in decorating. He has covered one wall of his office with beautiful colored post cards from Hawaii. Cook, whose love of Hawaii is reflected in his programming of frequent Hawaiian musical selections, received all these post cards from listeners who wrote to him from the romantic islands.
