

Las Madrecitas Presents Award

Presentation of an engraved plaque to Ernest Dahlgren, Jr., highlighted the Las Madrecitas' June party Saturday night when members and husbands enjoyed a luau at the Reef in Long Beach.

During the past few years, instead of exchanging Christmas gifts, Dahlgren and his associates at Hughes Aircraft Company have made contributions to the Pediatric Ward of the Orthopaedic Hospital in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Glen Kleinhesselink, president of Las Madrecitas during the 1960 to 1961 season, presented the award on behalf of the Auxiliary.

Youthful CDA Girls Depart for Retreat

Starting the summer off by going to a girls' summer camp, junior and juniorette members of Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Catholic Daughters of America, left Monday.

These young ladies, ages 8 to 15 years, left Los Angeles Monday, June 26, by chartered bus for a week's stay at Camp Teresita Pines. This girls' summer camp is located in the Angeles National Forest, Big Pines Area, Wrightwood.

Camp Teresita Pines, open to all mentally and physically healthy girls between the ages of 8 to 15 is sponsored by the Senior Catholic Daughters of America in the Los Angeles Archdiocese. The spiritual director is Rt. Rev. Msgr. James E. Dolan. The camp program of hiking, archery, swimming, camp fire gatherings, dramatics, athletics, handicraft, nature lore, and story-telling is at all times under the supervision of leaders and trained counselors. Horseback riding is also available.

The Junior and Juniorette members of Court Our Lady of Victory 1344 leaving for a fun filled week at this beautiful and impressive camp are the Misses Alicia Williams, Palma Morgan, Linda Ste. Marie, Shelly Garrison, Barbara Lynch, Terry Hynes, Lynda and Christine White, Margaret Boner, and Lynda Coon.

THROUGHOUT SUMMER

Other young ladies from this local court will be attending this camp throughout the summer. The camp periods of one or two weeks, or a ten-day period started June 26 and will extend through August 28. Reservations may be made only at the camp office, 717 South Burlington, Los Angeles 57, Hubbard 3-8622.

Because of the monthly and additional annual donation to Camp Teresita Pines by the members of the Senior Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Camp Teresita recently awarded two free camperships to this local court to be given to two needy girls in this area.

Junior Past Grand Regent Mrs. Stacy Rodman presented the free camperships to Rt. Rev. Msgr. Daniel Collins, pastor of St. Lawrence Martyr, to be given at his discretion. Last year girls from St. James received the camperships.

Group Meets At Term End

Faculty and staff joined with the 223rd St. School PTA June 16 for a luncheon in the school auditorium. Plans for vacations were discussed and memories refreshed by teachers and PTA members alike.

Retiring president, Mrs. R. C. Heitmeier, told of plans to visit her relatives in Memphis, Tenn.

Special guest at this occasion was Mrs. Ralph Robertson, president-elect for 1961-62.

Serving on the luncheon committee were Mmes. Jimmy Morris, John Bankard, and Leo Petrecino.
