

Women Entertain Youngsters with Parties, Shows During Summer

SKIPPER FRANK HERMAN, making an appearance at Howard Wood School Wednesday, put on a show for youngsters in the vicinity. Pictured are (seated on floor, left to right) Alan and Deborah Crawford and Debbie Johnson; (seated) Garry

Mach and Linda Reinhardt; (back) Terryl Braswell, Suzanne Mach, Mrs. Richard Reinhardt, PTA president; Mrs. Edwin Mach, ways and means chairman; Mrs. Otis Crawford, first vice president; Gina and Tina Johnson; and Skipper Frank.

Photo by Walter D. Eiswick

Women

Carolyn Perko . . . Women's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Nuptial Vows Unite Hughes, Miss Herrold

At an evening wedding in Oregon, Neoma Ruth Herrold of Pasadena became the bride of Lloyd W. Hughes of Torrance June 30.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Herrold of Oregon and Hughes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webber Hughes, 3708 244th St., Torrance.

Soloing for her own wedding, the bride sang "This is the Day." Mrs. Russell Ragsdale, soloist, sang "A Wedding Song" and "A Wedding Prayer."

Miss Herrold wore a gown of scalloped French lace over white taffeta. She designed and made her own gown. The fingertip illusion veil with lace and pearl was also made by the bride.

BOUQUET

The bride carried a bouquet of four white orchids with white rose buds. Lace and streamers decorated the flowers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Buel Liming, sister of the bride, who wore a gown of pink and white scalloped organdy over pink taffeta. She wore a picture brim hat and white nylon wedding mitts, made by the bride. Her flowers were pink rosebuds in a pink net and ribbon nosegay which was made by the bride. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Evelyn Stantesson, Miss Lorraine

Maynes of Palos Verdes, and Miss Jean Ann Goetz.

They wore Nile green and white scalloped organdy over Nile green taffeta gowns. Accessories were identical to those of the matron of honor.

FLOWER GIRL

Miss Helen Herrold, niece of the bride, served as flower girl in a gown similar to that of the matron of honor.

Best man for the bridegroom was Buel Liming of Oregon, Charles Kennedy, Marvin Herrold, and John Herrold were ushers.

The First Baptist Church, where the wedding was held, was decorated with white bows and pink roses on the pews. Floral baskets in the sanctuary were designed and arranged by the bride.

After a reception held at the church, the new Mr. and Mrs. Hughes departed for a honeymoon in Washington and Canada. They will reside in Pasadena upon return from their honeymoon.

Hughes is a 1949 graduate of Torrance High School. He graduated from El Camino College in 1956 and received his bachelor of arts degree from Los Angeles Baptist College in 1959 and is now in his second year of seminary study at the Los Angeles Baptist Theological Seminary.

TO GRADUATE

Hughes will graduate from the seminary in June of 1962. Presently, he is employed at the Los Angeles Branch Society in Los Angeles.

Young Campsters

Children from Calvary Community Church between the ages of 6½ to 12½ will attend summer camp from July 10 to July 15.

Camp "Good News" is sponsored by the Child Evangelism Fellowship. For information regarding reservations contact Mrs. York at DA 9-8107 or Mrs. Preheim at DA 9-5058.

Dance Group Tours Hawaii For 10 Days

Several students of the Brownee Brown Dance Arts Studios and their parents left Saturday, July 8, for a 10-day tour of Hawaii.

Taking the trip are Dr. and Mrs. Jack Lighthill and Nancy and John; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Klindt and Annemarie; Linda Pomeroy; Beverly Erickson; Irene Harmon; Marty Chapin; Alison Helms; Roger Taimi; Melvin Carrillo; and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown and Kathy.

Also attending is Judy Hardy, associate teacher for the Redondo and Santa Monica studios. Supervising the group is Miss E. Verna Trimble, business manager of both studios.

Miss Brown left June 28 to attend the Dance Masters of America Convention at the Princess Kaiulana Hotel in Honolulu. She will personally conduct the tour in Hawaii.

Among the many activities planned for the group are all day tours of the Island, a Luau at the Queen's Surf, a trip to Pearl Harbor, and lessons in Hawaiian from native teachers.

MR. AND MRS. LLOYD W. HUGHES . . . the former Neoma Ruth Herrold

Firm Gives Display For Torrance Women

JEWELL MARSHALL . . . appliance counselor

Torrance residents are invited to attend a month-long series of open house displays to be conducted during July by the Southern California Gas Company at its Southwest Division headquarters, 158 S. La Brea Ave. in Inglewood.

Onview will be a large selection of modern gas appliances, and a team of gas company experts will be available to advise visitors on latest trends in modern home-making.

During each Friday session local residents are urged to bring their questions and home-making problems to the staff of advisors assembled for open house. On hand will be the Division's Home Economists, Bea Layman and Ann Maier, Appliance Counselor

Jewell Marshall an da kitchen planning consultant.

Highlight of the month-long open house series will be the presentation of a free gas light, with normal free installation, at the concluding session July 28. Registration is possible at any of the open houses for an opportunity to win. Refreshments will be served at each of the weekly sessions.

According to Don Cartwright, Division Appliance & Dealer Sales Supervisor and coordinator of the open house, all residents of the Centinela Valley and South Bay areas are welcome to view the latest gas appliances—for cooking, water heating, air conditioning, refrigerating and luxury lighting—and obtain home-making advice.

ANN MAIER . . . home economist

Moose Women Crown Queen

The title of queen was bestowed upon Mrs. Arthur Galinsky, child care chairman of the Women of the Moose Chapter 34, June 30, at Moose Hall, 1744 W. Carson.

Her title was awarded because she earned more points throughout the year than any other chairwoman.

The coronation was presided over by Anne Wilkins, collect of regents. Mrs. Galinsky was crowned by the outgoing queen, Mrs. Amer Davis, and was presented with two dozen American Beauty Roses and a kiss by Douglas Dixon, governor of the Loyal Order of the Moose 785.

The new queen was serenaded by Carl Fisher, prelate of the order, who sang "Hail Our Chairman" and "Sweet Alice Blue Gown."

Mrs. Galinsky received a scarlet satin and sequin robe as she was named queen.

In honor of her majesty, the drill team of chapter 44 and the captain of the team, Mrs. Ed Peacock, went through the formations wearing long pastel gowns. Refreshments were served.

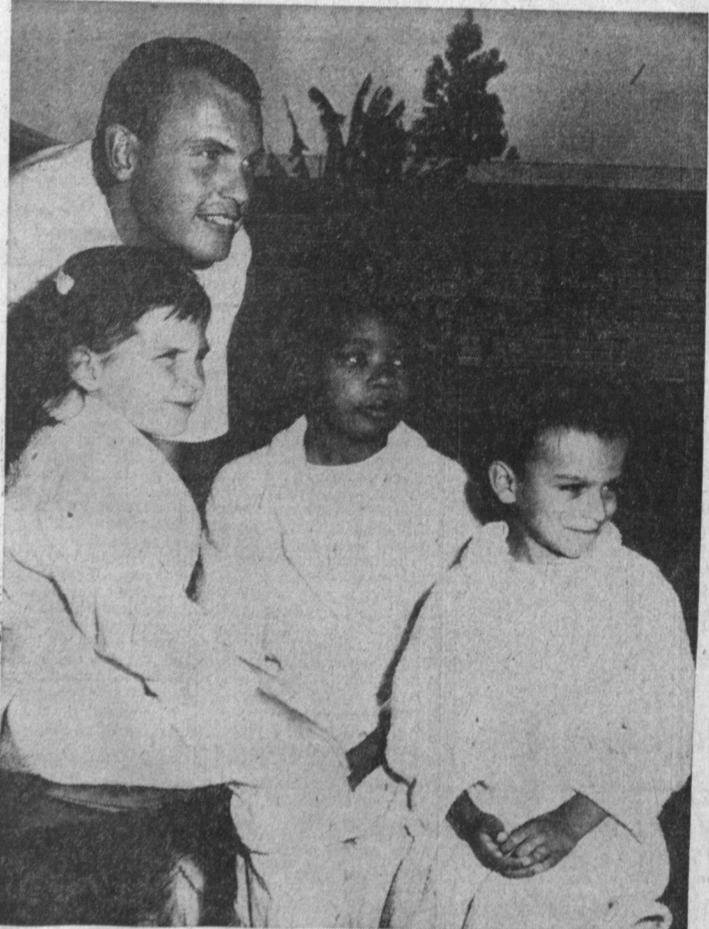

Square Links Dancers Hold Party Tonite

The Square Links Square Dance Club is having a "special" party tonight featuring dancing from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m., with a coffee break at 8 p.m. Theme for the evening is "13 Calories" with caller Hoppy Hopkins.

Al and Margaret Majors of Bishop, California, are expected to attend the dance at the American Legion Hall, 1109 Border Ave., Torrance.

The beginners class, sponsored by the Square Links, is now in its 12th week of progress. Those interested in additional practice or "brushing up" can join the group Sunday afternoons from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Gardena Barn, 15015 Daphne.

Information can be obtained by calling George Ingersoll at FAirfax 8-6724.

PARTY TIME at Harbor General Hospital was sponsored by the Volunteers for Children Thursday, at which time children played games and received gifts. Special gifts were given youngsters whose birthdays fall during this month. In on the fun is (left to right) Dr. James Hall, Susan Clemens, 4; Wendy Carroll, 12; Abelino Parra, 7.

INSTALLED OFFICERS of Hillside PTA for the 1961-62 term are (back row, left to right) Mrs. John Derry, fourth vice president; Mrs. Herbert McCoy, third vice president; Mrs. Fred Field, historian; Mrs. William Tyler, second vice president;

(front) Mrs. Beryl P. Guttridge, president; Mrs. Guy Gatos, first vice president; Mrs. Gladstone S. Lewis, recording secretary; John Strom, principal, inside publicity; and Mrs. Vinca Espizato, corresponding secretary.

Photo by Walter D. Eiswick