

Bridge Club Holds Playoff During June

The Hollywood Riviera Bridge Club held its final playoff of the season June 30. The three top places and total scores for the season were Col. and Mrs. Lester Kiker, with a plus 23,840; Bill Beckman, second place, with a plus 17,450; and Maurice and Mildred Baldwin, third place, with a plus 13,460.

The annual dinner and election of officers for the coming season will take place Saturday, July 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul

Guests Visit Parents Here

Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Alberty and daughter Judith Ann of Tulsa, Oklahoma, arrived by jet Friday morning, June 30, for a vacation here with Alberty's parents.

The guests are visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Alberty of 23309 Western Ave., Torrance. They are on a two-week vacation.

During the sojourn, trips to Disneyland, a Dodger game, and the Hollywood Midget baseball game in North Torrance were slated. Alberty, who is employed by American Airlines, has two sisters in Torrance. They are Mrs. Cloys E. Timms, Jr., the former Shirley Alberty, and Mrs. R. J. Radke, the former Wilma Alberty.

SALAD DRESSING

For a salad dressing that's different try this: Beat one-half cup honey and one-half cup lime or lemon juice together until well blended.

TOP FOR CRACKERS

Spread crackers with a blend of honey and creamed cheese, to which nuts or grated orange peels have been added.

Sacramento Topic Of Sunday Sermon

Genuine appreciation of the sacrifice and triumph of Christ Jesus must be expressed in daily living. This is the theme of the Lesson-Sermon on "Sacramento" to be presented at the semi-annual communion service in all Christian Science churches Sunday, July 9.

Paul's charge to Timothy, "Watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry" (I Tim. 4:5), will be included in the Bible selections.

Mary Baker Eddy declares in a correlative citation from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "To keep the commandments of our Master and follow his example, is our proper debt to him and the only worthy evidence of our gratitude for all that he has done" (p. 4).

This verse from John's Gospel (6:27) is the theme of the Responsive Reading, "Labour not for the meat which perisheth which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed."

ORANGE 'N HONEY

Vary your favorite waffle batter by adding to it one tablespoon of grated orange peel. Bake as usual. Serve with orange slices and plenty of honey.

Foreign Boys Talk Of American Girls

Foreign boys love American girls because they're friendly and complimentary.

That's the consensus of 25 youths from all over the world who confess "What I Love About American Girls" in the July issue of Seventeen Magazine. In the United States on visits, as exchange students or to take part in forums and the like, the boys from countries as diverse as India, Italy, Singapore and Southern Rhodesia are unanimous in their praise of American girls. As Clem Della Pietra of Switzerland puts it, "American girls have everything: they combine the graciousness of the French, the beauty of the Italians, the housekeeping ability of the Swiss and the glamour—well, the glamour is plain American."

But the young men also agree that there are some things about American girls that they can do without. "I feel uncomfortable when I see girls at a party wearing ber-

After the first kiss, the girl looked at me, half shocked, half delighted and whispered, 'You foreigners! Are all of you really like this?' I saw lots of piddles!"

"American girls think creatively and come up with amazing ideas—which is quite the opposite of what I expected," observes Ahmet Demirel of Turkey. Sverrir Holmarsson of Iceland is amused that "American girls can think seriously but don't want to be associated with serious thinking."

FRIENDLY

The friendliness of American girls is a point on which the boys are in complete accord. Says Miltos Coimis of Greece: "I came to America as a stranger. The girls treated me as if they had known me a long time." According to Harold Jacobsohn of Columbia, "American girls aren't as arrogant as girls in South America. They don't try to hide the fact that they enjoy having dates as much as boys do." Joachim Ennsin of West Germany agrees: "In the United States when you see a pretty girl and smile at her, she smiles back. A German girl would walk haughtily away." Gernu Fernando finds American girls the "pittiest" in the whole world—"which means that they act very friendly and don't always try to hook you."

COMPLIMENTS

The boys find that American girls "can handle their boyfriends" and know just when a compliment is called for. "American girls are great for building up a boy's ego," says Sverrir Holmarsson. Raza Ali of Pakistan admires their "flair for making a boy feel he's way up in the clouds. But they also have a flair for bringing him down to harsh reality," he adds.

What delights all the boys is that American girls think the boys from foreign countries are wonderful. "It's bad for the soul but good for the ego—which is good if you want to enjoy life," says Tan Wee Kiat of Singapore.

American girls are original and creative, the young men agree. "They often make bright inventions—such as piddles," says Per Seglen. "The first time I was in the back seat of a car with an American girl, she said that whenever I saw a car with only one light—a piddler—

Women Chosen NSA Delegates

Mrs. W. Howard Smith, 1836 Sepulveda Blvd., Torrance, and Mrs. F. G. C. Charles of Hawthorne will leave July 19 to represent the South Bay Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) at the 16th Annual Convention to be held at The Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles, California, July 19 to 22.

Mrs. Charles, the chapter's president, who is employed by Gaffers and Sattler, Los Angeles, was chosen as delegate, and Mrs. Smith, immediate past president, who is employed by the United States Coast Guard, Long Beach, was chosen to serve as alternate delegate.

The chapter's delegate is authorized to cast official votes in all business matters which will be discussed during the four-day session.

This includes the election of international officers for 1961-1962, including a new international president, five district vice presidents, secretary and treasurer.

The theme of the convention will be "Walk Worthy of Your Profession," reflecting NSA's basic purpose, which is to encourage secretaries to strive at all times to do a better, more professional job through continuing study.

More than 1200 secretaries will arrive from all over the United States, Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico, and Finland to attend forums, elect new officers, hear reports on NSA's many educational, civic, and professional activities and witness the selection of the 1961 Secretary of the Year.

The world's largest organization of business women in one profession, NSA has over 22,500 members in approximately 510 chapters. The local chapter was established in 1957 and has 34 members.

Edward T. and Martha Jane Rickard, owners of the Three Arts Dance Studio 2252 W. Carson St., Torrance, are attending the National Association of Dance and Affiliated Artists at the Statler Hotel in Los Angeles. The Rickards have been with the studio for 13 consecutive years.

The summer term at the studio will resume next week. Colored movies of students were taken several weeks ago and will be shown at a later date along with the film of 1951 at the studio.
