Evening Wedding Vows Unite Pair

Nuptial vows were said in the evening, June 30, which joined Frances Slaughter and Steven McClung as man and wife at a double-ring ceremony.

Miss Slaughter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard F. Slaughter, 1681 W. 252 St., Harbor City, was given away in marriage by her father.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Florence McClung, 25520 Woodward Ave., Lomita, and Mac McClung of Coffeyville, Kansas.

The Rev. Robert Wells officiated at the 7:30 p.m. wedding held at the Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church. The church was decorated with baskets of white carnations and stalk.

GOWN

The bride's full-length gown was made of silk organza over taffeta. It had three-quarter length sleeves and a lace and pearl neckline accented with a rose of the same material. She wore a veil of silk illusion held by a white rose tiara and carried a bouquet of white carnations surrounding a white orchid.

Maid of honor Sherry Meeks wore a pink chiffon over taffeta gown and carried pink carnations. Bridesmaids Peggy Sollars and Elizabeth Winger wore gowns of aqua chiffon over taffeta with scooped necklines and belled skirts. They carried aqua-tinted carnations.

FLOWER GIRL

Flower girl Janice Slaughter, sister of the bride, wore a pink nylon dress with a full skirt. She carried a basket of rose petals.

Dennis McClung, bridegroom's brother, served as best man and Larry Sitez and Glen Aycock served as ushers.

Mother of the bride wore a rose suit with a white hat and gloves. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua sheath with an overskirt.

DEPARTED

The couple departed for a one-week honeymoon in Coffeyville, Kansas from the reception held immediately after the ceremony in the youth building of the church. They reside at 25302 Fejosa, Lomita.

A 1960 graduate of Narbonne High School, the bride attended Harbor College. McClung graduated from Narbonne High School in 1958 and from Harbor College in 1961. He is employed with BMW Manufacturing, Torrance.
