Travel Talk Is Luncheon Highlight

The Palos Verdes Christian Women's Club held its monthly luncheon meeting at the Hacienda on Tuesday, July 11. This month's luncheon was held outdoors. The theme of the luncheon was "Here's Your Hat, What's Your Hurry."

Since these are vacation months, the special feature of the afternoon was packing. A stewardess from United Airlines demonstrated packing the quick and easy way. Anthony and Beth Trotto furnished music. Trotto played a saxophone while his wife accompanied him at the piano. She also sang a soprano solo.

Trotto has played for such bands as Paul Whiteman, Wayne King, and does music arranging. Presently he is the music director at the North Redondo Chapel.

Henry S. Gordon was the inspirational speaker of the afternoon. He was once in a fete rnoon. He was once in show business as a dance team and presently owns two of the largest real estate offices in the Crenshaw area. He has devoted most of his life to Christian work.
